TO YOUR HEART

My dear brother! Let your soul glorify God Father and our Lord Jesus Christ! Let your heart praise our Heavenly Father for the whole His Kindness and Mercy, which He gives to His children. Since, the Son of Man stands there, before His Throne. Jesus Christ from Nazareth stands there, in the God's Glory. He is the Same, in Who we have believed in order to be transformed by the God's Blessing. He is the Same, Who longs to gift his heart to us, so that we might live for the God, instead for ourselves. Believe me that there is not more splendid feeling than this – to be sure that the Life of That One, Who lives forever pulsates inside your spirit. There is not greater privilege than this – to offer your spirit, soul and body like a Holy sacrifice for the Glory of Zion and His King.

For the last months, God filled my heart with happiness, what I had not experienced yet. He gave me to see the life and service of His chosen men through His eyes. Then, my soul was satisfied with such Heavenly bread, what the men, beloved by Father had surely eaten in each place and time. However, when you meet Christ in your life, know that, everything that will fill your spirit in the moment of the meeting will be just this – to want Jesus Himself. Since, He did not spare Himself, when He was on the earth. He gives Himself out today provided that you survive in longing to the Heaven. Then, the taste of the Heavenly Bread will be spilled like Holy oil in your spirit and heart. And, you will surely understand why the Bible talks about holy and glorious God's men. You will surely realize that the reason for the Holiness and Glory is hidden just in the Heavenly Bread.

I would like for you to know that the Word in this book is like a provoked revelation. Since, for the last months, Lord Jesus Christ was giving to me to look at Moses and Elijah. He was giving to me to look at the right of Father, as well as at His left; to seek the Will of Father, as well as His Power. However, the faith of my heart was again provoked by my Lord. According to His Will, my eyes stopped looking at His right and His left. Then, I saw something new. I saw the center, where the left and right went from. I had not done it till now, since the God's anointing in my heart was charged with centrifugal forces. When I looked from the left of the God's heart, I could see Prophet Elijah there. Then, my look was leading me in the life of Prophet Elijah. The same happened from the right. Near the gold candlestick of Father, I could see Prophet Moses. Then, I was going to the right, in order to see the hidden in the life of the God's servant. And, the whole splendid experience from the repeated meetings with my Lord, I described in books. These books were charged with the spirit and power of Elijah, as well as with the spirit and power of Moses. I saw the condemnation of Jezebel the spirit, who was standing against the Elijah's service. I also saw the condemnation of the spirit of Korah, who was the spirit, standing against the Moses' service. I saw the stream Kishon and the top of Carmel, like a perfect appearance of Father in the Elijah's life. I saw what looked like sea of glass and the Lord's signs with the song of Moses, like a perfect appearance of Father in the life of Moses. What more could I want? Did not I have the perfect maximum, in order to rejoice and triumph in the God's Mercy and faithfulness? The Truth, my brother, is that the calling by Father has a long-term target. In this calling, there is way to be covered and worth to be paid. I do not know yet what part of the way I have covered, neither what worth I have paid. However, I know that the revelations, in which Jesus was leading me, were only steps to one higher state in the understanding of the God's heart. Lord Himself, Who wanted for me to understand in fullness the spiritual challenges to my heart, mercifully appeared before me and told me:

"Stefan, look at Me and seek My things. Since, you have to see things, which you have never seen. You have to comprehend truths, which you have never comprehended. You have to draw inspiration and anointing, what you have never received. According to My Will, I showed you lots of the secrets of the spiritual world. The Prophetic Spirit of Father was always over your head, so that you might fly by Him into the light celestial spheres of Father. However, I would like for you to see something more than the right and the left; something more than the Spirit and Power of Elijah and the Spirit and Power of Moses. Therefore, look at Me, because I will give you a vision, which will reveal to you the deepest of My heart..."

After His words, Lord gave me a vision. I could see Jesus and all His apostles, gathered on the Passover. Then, Jesus gave me a sign with His eyes to look at Him and to concentrate my regard only on His Body. So, I fixed the eyes of my heart in the Lord, and the rest images from the vision were wrapped in mist. Do you know what I could see, my dear brother? I could see Lord, Who was sat at the table. In addition, I could see one light lad, who had leaned his head on the breast of Jesus. It was so light on the place, where the head of the lad was, as if a Spring of Light was gushing out of Jesus' heart. The streams of this Spring were touching the curls of the lad, enlightening his head and going to his heart. I knew well that it was a vision with John. It was so living and impressive that it incited me to go near the Lord and to lean my head on Jesus' breast, too. The Spring of Light and its light waves openly poured over the John's figure. In this moment, I knew that he was the most blissful and happy man in the whole universe. He was neither from the left, nor from the right of Jesus. He was in the Lord's Bosom and his heart was joined with the God's heart. Only now, I could understand where Jesus was leading me to. He demanded from me to accept not only the Will and the Power of the God. Jesus demanded from me to accept His Perfect fullness. It is that alloy of Power and Will, which testifies in full degree that one has the Image of the Saviour in himself. A moment later, the vision stopped, and Lord approached me again. He asked me:

"Do you see, Stefan that I gave you anything new in this vision? Do you see that I do no longer lead you to the right, or to the left, but into My Bosom itself?"

"Yes, Lord! I saw all this. And it was splendid. Now, I understand that there are testimonies in Your Word about such men, who have had in fullness not only the Power, or the Will, but Your heart itself. Since, in the vision, Your heart was a Spring, from which Light was gushing out..."

"No, Stefan! It was not My heart; it was the heart of My Father. Since, Father was Who pointed and gave Me My people. And, there was one man among them, who lived in My heart, as well as in the heart of My Father. This was John – the evident Apostle and the hidden Prophet. This was the man according to the God's heart, who gathered in himself both the Power and the Will..."

Some words from the told by Jesus drove into my heart with such weight that I felt how the God's anointing enflamed all my veins and intestines. Then I asked Jesus:

"How should I understand You, Lord? How should I understand Your words about John like evident Apostle and hidden Prophet?"

Jesus smiled and said:

"Understand that, according to the power of His Eternal Choice, Which can not be broken or changed, My Father raised His anointed man, who should testify for Me, as well as for Him. He appeared an anointed man, who belonged as to My servants, so to the servants of My Father. This was an anointed man, who began his service like an apostle, but who finished it like a prophet. This is I am going to tell you in this book about. Since, most of all, My Father wants men and women according to His heart. He wants them to be not only eager in the Will or Power of the God, but to be really zealous according to the God's heart. Since, My Father needs servants with two hands, surviving in the Bosom of Abraham, so as John survived in My Bosom. However, nobody can survive in My Bosom unless he knows Me like the Alpha and the Omega. Therefore, let me inspire you now to understand the deep words of the Lord your God..."

After His last words, Jesus made the vision stop, and I understood again and again in my life that the perfect Love and benevolence of Father was just this – to take away our human blindness in order to gift us with the eyes of Jesus.

I believe that this book will be for your heart like that salve, by which the Saviour anointed the travelers for Emmaus, so that they told each other:

"Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" (Luke 24:32)

I give the Glory and the thankfulness of my heart to the Only One, Who is able to anoint by salve the human hearts – my Lord Jesus Christ from Zion.

As to you, my dear brother, I tell you that I love you by the whole love of my heart and I wish for the Bosom of Jesus to be Graceful Throne for your heart, too.

This book will reveal you this Bosom and I believe that the life of John will become the most desirable example for you to be inspired and to follow.

Amen and Amen!

1. ALPHA AND OMEGA

My dear brother! Let the words in this book, which the Holy Spirit gives me to write for your encouragement and enlightenment, become foundation for your real standing in the Word of God and in His Life. Since, in the time of Lord Jesus and His earth service, the Heavenly Father realized the most splendid and perfect destinies. It is the same as if you imagine how a great painter stands before one white canvas, on which he wants to draw the most beautiful picture and to gift it to the generations. Then, this Artist finds such tints and hues and he uses such an inspiration that it might be impossible for all the centuries afterwards to be found a picture, more beautiful and inspired than His Own. Think over the fact that the Good News has been preached for two thousands years on the earth. For two thousands years, the Gospel has been a picture, which thousands upon thousands hearts have fallen in love with. Even if many have tried to make copies of This Picture, they have not been able to add to its perfect fullness, neither to take away from it. That one, who has already been in love with the Picture, he has understood the Heavenly truth that a man does not need anything else but falling on his face before Father and telling Him:

“Father, let this picture, which You drew by Your perfect Power, become a picture of my life. I want to enter it, to live in it, to survive in it. I know, Lord that even ten times upon thousands years more to pass on this earth, those splendid examples, which You gave us would never be repeated on the earth. Nothing else will inspire and enlighten me, purify and confirm, as Your Word. Since, You are Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. People come to this world and then die. Their deeds turn into dust and ash; their memory is lost in the long trace of the time. However, Your Word rests, my Lord! Your picture remains, and makes the men from each generation to leave their own ways, in order to find the Way, Truth and Life...”

Have you got such motive and élan in your heart, my brother? Have you got the faith to accept that the more you know and comprehend the Word of God and Father, the more hidden and unknown it becomes? Have you got the humbleness to raise your hand and to acknowledge that, the higher the Heaven is from the earth, the longer time you will travel to the heart of Father? And, only according to His Mercy, without any your merits, you will receive the Heavenly Bread. I long to live just in this way. While the breath, given to me by Lord, is filling my lungs and moving my lips, I will know that the comprehension of one verse from the God's Word is a privilege and wealth for the heart, greater than the profits and treasures of the whole world.

Now, let me tell you by which secrets Lord Jesus enlightened my heart, so that I might see the invisible activity of God Father in the life of John. As a beginning, Jesus made me be attentive in the very name, given to His disciple. Since, every man comes to the earth with his name and he bears his destiny in his name, so that the written by Apostle Paul in Ephesians might be true:

“For this reason I kneel before the Father, (of our Lord Jesus Christ) from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name...” (Ephesians 3:14-15)

If every family would bear its name, then, each family bears its destiny, too. Since, the destiny of each being comes from the Lord and its end is foreseen by Him. Therefore, let me make you now a witness of the conversation, which I had with my Lord, because He began to talk in my heart, saying:

“Do you want to know Me like Alpha and Omega? Then, be ready to go together with Me into the understanding of the God's Will about the destiny of His servants. Look at the destiny in the name “John”! Since, only by this look, you will be able to unlock the secret and deep fates of Father. What do you notice in this name, Stefan?”

“Lord, I know that the name “John” means “Blessed is Lord”. And, if Lord is Blessed and Gracious, everybody, who bears the name John, would have a mighty benevolence by Father.”

“Then, see the first man in the New Testament, who had such benevolence. Who was he?”

“Lord, this was John the Baptist. Your Word says that his parents had the wish to give him the name of his father; nevertheless, the word, told by Archangel Gabriel, withstand. Even dumb, the priest Zechariah wrote on a writing tablet: “His name is John...”

“Then, think that if Lord your God is Alpha and Omega, does not He see the Beginning, as well as the End? If Lord could see the service of John the Baptist, was He surprised by the end of the God's Prophet in the dungeon?"

"No, Lord! It is not possible for You and Father to be surprised. Since, David talked very clearly about the power of the God's predestination. He wrote:

"...your eyes saw my unformed body. All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be. How precious to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!" (Psalm 139:16-17)

"Then, how can I think about some surprise in the God if He Himself has written all the ordained days of John the Baptist, yet before one of them came to be? I rather think that God has arranged His fates so that just His Will might be realized at each coincidence."

"So it is, My boy. The circumstances are earth explanations and excuses, given by earth men. However, there are no coincidences and chances in your Father. His destinies are guided by the power of predestination and providence. Then, what do you think? Did the first man in the New Testament, who bore the name "John", cover his way perfectly?"

"No, Lord! Prophet John did not cover his way perfectly, despite the fact that, in the supreme moment of his life, he was devoted to the God and Father and You Yourself came to the Jordan River and was baptized by him. He made mistakes, too. Even if he declared about You:

"He must become greater; I must become less..."

...he did not perfectly protect his confession with deeds. Your Gospel, Lord, shows that there were often arguments between Your disciples and his disciples. Therefore, I ask myself: Did John need any disciples if the Perfect Teacher had already come in His service on the earth? Had not his disciples to become Your followers according to his personal example and call?"

Jesus smiled on my thoughts and said:

"Think that John the Baptist came on in the spirit and power of Prophet Elijah. The question you ask Me about John, you can ask it about Elijah, too. Did Prophet Elijah need disciples in Bethel and Jericho if Father had not benevolence in them, but in His chosen man Elisha?"

The words of Jesus astounded me. I delighted in His wisdom, but I could not understand the fullness yet. Therefore, I asked Him:

“Lord, how should I understand these contradictions? On one hand, Elijah and John were the God’s prophets and anointed men. On the other hand, they put as a priority in their service just this – to prepare followers and finishers of their deed. However, Father did not deign both in the Elijah’s disciples and those of John. Since, if He deigned in the Elijah’s disciples, He would not let them become a laughing stock and seek Prophet Elijah on the hills. And, if He deigned in the disciples of John, He would surely make them Yours. Then, they would not ask why they fast so much, but Your disciples do not fast at all...”

“Do you see, Stefan? There are lots of questions in your heart, which need only one answer. The answer is that neither Elijah, nor John knew the perfect fullness of Father. They were servants from the left, according to His Will. However, they did not know where His Power extended to. Therefore, like human beings, they created disciples for their deed. However, We had seen that long time ago. Father gave an exit way both to Elijah and John the Baptist. For Elijah, the exit way was after the cave, when Father pointed him Elisha. As to John the Baptist, there was other exit way for him, which I would talk to you about. So, you will understand that Lord your God is really Alpha and Omega. So, you will understand that the deed of the God’s Prophetic Spirit did not fail with the death of the Baptist. Therefore, look at the vision that I am going to give you now...”

So, Jesus made a vision appear before the eyes of my heart. This vision was related with the reaction of the Lord, when John the Baptist was beheaded in the dungeon. I could see Jesus among crowds of people. His twelve disciples were standing around Him. Jesus raised a hand, made the crowds be silent and told aloud:

“What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings' palaces. Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written: “I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you...”(Matthew 11:7-10)

All people were fixed their gaze on Jesus, Who kept talking. He said:

"I tell you the truth: Among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist..." (Matthew 11:11)

After these words, Jesus turned back, put His hand on the head of His disciples John and added:

"...yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful men lay hold of it. For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. And if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come. He who has ears, let him hear..." (Matthew 11:11-15)

So, the vision stopped, and Lord began to talk to me again. He said:

"Do you notice, Stefan that I put My hand upon the head of My disciple John?"

"Yes, Lord! I was extremely impressed by the fact that You put Your hand on the head of John in the same time, when You said that the least one in the kingdom of heaven was greater than the Baptist. So, I understood that, in this case, You had in mind Your disciple John."

"Just right, My boy! However, this is not the full picture of the happened. Since, when I pronounced these words before the gathered people, and when I put My hand on the John's head, in fact, I ordained him as a prophet of Father, more powerful than all previous prophets. John received no only the Spirit and Power of Elijah, in which was My Father's Will. He also received the Spirit and Power of Moses, in which was the Power of My Father. That is why I kept talking before the gathered people; I told them that, from the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven had been forcefully advancing. So, the Prophetic Spirit of Father came down upon the heart of My disciple John. Then, what do you think? Why did I call My disciple the least in the Heavenly Kingdom"?"

"Lord, You Are the King of Heaven. And, where the King is, there is the Kingdom, too. You Yourself told us that:

“The kingdom of God does not come with your careful observation, nor will people say, “Here it is,” or “There it is,” because the kingdom of God is within you...” (Luke 17:20-21)

As to the fact that in the moment of his ordaining by You, John has been the least in the Heavenly Kingdom, the answer that he has probably been the least in age among the other Your disciples, could hardly be right. I rather think that this is Your most humble disciple, that one, who had to bear the destiny of the name “John” in his life...”

Jesus caressed my head. Then, He said:

“My disciple John was really humble. However, he also had his test. After I ordained him to continue the deed of the Baptist, he and James sent their mother before Me. She had understood by her sons that the God’s benevolence fell from John the Baptist upon the disciple John. So, she decided to provoke Me and My Father with the words:

“Grant that one of these two sons of mine may sit at your right and the other at your left in your kingdom...” (Matthew 20:21)

Did this zealous mother, eager to gain the God’s benevolence over her sons know that the right to choose servants and prophets according to His heart belonged only to My Father? Did she know that there, before the gold candlestick, the two anointed men Moses and Elijah would be standing forever? Did she know that, even if the Son of Man was Lord and God, it profited her nothing to try to please God? Since, the Son loves the Father and Father loves the Son. I and the Father are one! However, this maternal zeal with wrong focus made the others be tempted and indignant. Since, she had decided in his heart that, if God had deigned to put her son John as His Prophet, this decision would remove His benevolence over His other prophets. This was the first test for John. Since, I told him and his brother James, as well as all the rests:

“You will indeed drink from my cup (and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with - KJV), but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared by my Father...” (Matthew 20:23)

John was really attentive in My words. Since, he did not wish to sit from the right or from the left. He wished My Bosom. He wished My heart. So, he kept not only his anointing, but he increased the perfect God's benevolence upon his life. Then, look, Stefan, how the Gospel, written by John, bears in itself the ray of the Prophetic Spirit of Father. How does it begin?"

I smiled to the question of the Lord. Since, Jesus always likes to ask questions, in which the answer shines. Therefore, when I caught the Light, coming out of the blessing lips of the King, I said:

"Lord, I see that the Gospel, written by John, is more different than all other gospels. It bears in itself the Power of the Prophetic Spirit. Its very beginning looks like a spiritual repetition from the beginning from "Genesis". Since, John wrote:

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it..." (John 1:1-5)

And, Moses began "Genesis" with the words:

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters. And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness. God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." And there was evening, and there was morning - the first day..." (Genesis 1:1-5)

If I bind together the two messages, I see that they are one. Since, You, Lord, stand in both them! Since, Father stands in both them! Since, the light ray of the Prophetic Spirit shines in both them..."

Jesus smiled again. Then, He asked me:

"Do you understand now why John was the evident apostle and the hidden prophet?"

"Yes, Lord! I understand now that the perfect reason for the pouring out of the Prophetic Spirit is to testify about You. Since, in "The Revelation", Your angel told prophet John just this:

"...Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy..." (19:10)

All prophets in the Old Testament prophesied about You. And, in the New Testament, Father added for You a servant according to His heart, so that he might become a servant according to Your heart, too. He was chosen man both by Father and You. In the service for Father, he was a prophet, but in the Gospel for Your Kingdom, he was apostle. Therefore, I am not surprised that John was the evident apostle and the hidden prophet..."

"What is more, Stefan, look at My Word with My regard. Since, I told all you My words:

"A student is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master. It is enough for the student to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If the head of the house has been called Beelzebub, how much more the members of his household! "So do not be afraid of them. There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known. What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs..." (Matthew 10:24-27)

So, the Prophetic Spirit of My Father did not rest hidden in the life of John, too. This Mighty Spirit cut through the whole service of John for the Heaven. However, John would not become what he really became unless he had been attentive in My words. Since, in difference to the Baptist, who created for himself a whole prophetic school, John forever confirmed in his heart the Heavenly truth that "a student is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master". That is why John began to live in My heart and I began to live in his heart, too.

Then, see the categorical testimonies, concerning the choice of My Father over John. By this choice, you will understand that a man could receive only what is given him from heaven..."

After the last words of Jesus, the vision stopped and I took up writing all the precious words by my Lord.

2. THE DISCIPLE, WHO BECAME A SERVANT (OR ABOUT THE SECRET OF THE GOD'S REMAINING)

My brother! Are you attentive in the words of the Lord? Do you follow His thought? Do you know that, if these secrets of the God's Word come down just in this time, it is because of the fact that, in the God's eyes, we are the men, who should fill their hearts with a perfect knowledge of Lord Jesus Christ? Since, He is the Alpha and Omega and His Word is marked by one great Prophetic dash. This scope is so majestic that you would not understand it unless you think over the fact that the Old Testament begins with Prophet Moses and finishes with Prophet Malachi, but the New Testament begins with Prophet John the Baptist and finishes with Prophet John.

THE BIBLE BEGINS WITH A PROPHET AND FINISHES WITH A PROPHET.

As to those foolish and madmen, who would impose their doctrinal yeast on you, claiming that John is only apostle, but he is not a prophet, it is better for you to tell such men that the God's Word is not of use for the moles and bats, since the former beings live in ground, but the latter ones – in darkness. Until the moles go out of their holes, and the bats – out of the caves of theology, the Light of Father would not be of any use to both them. Now, open "The Revelation" and be encouraged by the words, which the angel of Lord Jesus talks to John:

"These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place." "Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy in this book." I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing them to me. But he said to me, "Do not do it! I am a fellow servant with you and with your brothers the prophets and of all who keep the words of this book. Worship God!" (22:6-9)

God of the prophetic spirits sends His angel to His prophet! And, the angel of the Lord is a fellow servant with Prophet John and with his brothers the prophets, as well as to those, who accept a prophet in the name of prophet and who keep the words of "The Revelation". Here, this is the biblical truth. However, I would like to emphasize on something else in this theme. Since, Lord Jesus pointed me that He should live in all us. The Christ's Life should pulsate in all us with the splendid fullness of those words, who declare:

"Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light..." (Matthew 11:29-30)

John had heard these words. He had not only heard them, but he had filled his heart with them. The apostle had an excellent spirit of Light and Love; He could demonstrate more knowledge and revelations than many others. However, he remained forever with the humble spirit of disciple. And I, my brother, fell in love with the Heavenly Image, radiated by John. Since, trust me, nobody else but Christ can make the God's servant so humble and selfless.

Now, see what words my Lord told me. Since, by these words, He wanted to devote myself in His greater depths.

"Stefan, every time and each generation need the Prophetic Spirit of Father. Each time and every generation need raising and confirming. Therefore, My Father has always sent His servants the prophets among the Lord's people. Therefore, I put My words in the Gospel. These words declare:

"Therefore I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers. Some of them you will kill and crucify; others you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town. And so upon you will come all the righteous blood that has been shed on earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berekiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar..." (Matthew 23:34-35)

Do you know why My prophets had always been rejected and despised? Do you know what this great intolerance to the messengers of Heaven is due to? Remember and tell all people, who love Me and let them know that:

THE REASON TO BE REJECTED MY PROPHETS IS DUE TO THE FACT THAT THEY NEVER COME TO YOU LIKE TEACHERS, BUT ALWAYS LIKE DISCIPLES!

Remember here My words, written by John:

“I do not accept praise from men, but I know you. I know that you do not have the love of God in your hearts. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me; but if someone else comes in his own name, you will accept him. How can you believe if you accept praise from one another, yet make no effort to obtain the praise that comes from the only God?” (John 5:41-44)

Do you wonder then that, if anybody comes like teacher, he will surely gather the ovation and honour, the cheers and glory? However, if such man comes like a disciple, sent by the True Teacher, he will only gather contempt. May be, you forgot that I told just about My humble men:

“Anyone who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and anyone who receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is my disciple, I tell you the truth, he will certainly not lose his reward...” (Matthew 10:41-42)

Many perverted and perishing in their sins people distorted My words, and they considered that they should be teachers, when giving water to somebody, who was a student. However, such men have forgotten that the True Teacher is one. When This True Teacher sends His anointed men to the churches, then they go to appear His Will in the name of a student, like ones, who have been taught to give the Glory to the Only God. However, the men do not receive them. Most people like to receive glory one from another and to adorn themselves with the titles of each leadership.

Then, how many people know that My chosen men never take the place of their Teacher?

How many people know that, even clothed in the Spirit of the excellent wisdom, My prophets will not say that they can see, since, I am, Who look instead of them?

Then, look at the John's life and see the attitude, which he had to himself own to the end of the Gospel. How did he call himself? What were the testimonies of his humility?"

The questions of Jesus made me see that John had such attitude to the Lord, which entirely displayed his humble heart. Since, on many places, this God's servant determined himself with the words:

"The disciple whom Jesus loved..."

Then, I told Jesus:

"Lord, is not that strange? Even in the excellent anointing of the Holy Spirit, when John has been at the end of the writing of the Gospel, he has been talking about himself, as for a disciple?"

"Would John write the Gospel at all, if he considered himself to be teacher, Stefan? However, look at the signs in the John's life just as a disciple, and you will understand why I lead you in these depths. Since, John considered himself to be disciple, when he was writing the Gospel. Now, look in "The Revelation" and see whether he has kept this attitude to himself there, too..."

I looked at the initial verses of "The Revelation" and I told the Lord:

"Jesus, John appeared himself like a God's servant here. His words prove that he has firm and perfect confidence in his calling..."

"Then, look at My words at the end of the Gospel. Since, you will understand there what way one disciple should cover in order to become a servant..."

The finger of Jesus had already pointed me the necessary verses; so, I read them. Then, I said:

"Lord, here, it is written:

"Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them. (This was the one who had leaned back against Jesus at the supper and had said, "Lord, who is going to betray you?") When Peter saw him, he asked, "Lord, what about him?" Jesus answered, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? You must follow me." Because of this, the rumor spread among the brothers that this disciple would not die. But Jesus did not say that he would not die; he only said, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?" This is the disciple who testifies to these things and who wrote them down. We know that his testimony is true..." (John 21:20-24)

Then, Jesus said again:

"How do you understand My words? What does it mean that your God wants for John to remain alive until He returns?"

"Lord, I think that there is a great secret here. Just this secret explains why John is a disciple in the Gospel, but in the Revelation, he is a servant..."

"You have noticed that very well. This is not other secret, but the secret of the Lord's remaining, which now, I am going to talk to you about. For this aim, go to the Revelation and see how John describes the appeal by the God's Prophetic Spirit..."

I was again at the Revelation and my eyes could read the John's confession. Here what the words of the Prophet were:

"I, John, your brother and companion in the suffering and kingdom and patient endurance that are ours in Jesus, was on the island of Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. On the Lord's Day I was in the Spirit..." (1:9-10)

Then, I told my Lord:

"Lord, John talks here that on the Lord's Day he has been in the Spirit..."

Jesus looked at me with piercing regard, even if His eyes examined and tested me. Then, He asked me:

"Which is the greater sign for you? Is this the fact that John has been in the Spirit, or that all this has happened on the Lord's Day?"

I felt some trap in the words of the Lord. In the first moment, I was ready to notice the experience of John in the Spirit. However, I pondered over the Lord's question more attentively. In the last reckoning, what was the experience of John in the Spirit? Was it a reason for the coming of the Lord's Day, or its consequence? Finally, I gathered my courage and told the Lord:

"Lord, many consider the experience in the Spirit to be worthy of admiration. However, I have always remembered Your words that:

"...A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign!"

That is why I am sure that the secret, which You want to reveal for me is not only the experience in the Spirit. I think that You rather want to discover for me the meaning of the Lord's Day..."

Jesus smiled and His eyes sparkled joyfully. So, I understood that my answer had satisfied Him. He said:

"Just right, My boy! The remarkable in the John's words proved to be the Lord's Day, but no only his experience in the Spirit. Since, there would not be any remaining in the Spirit unless the Lord's Day had come. Then, what do you think? Who is the Lord's Day? Since, some people will tell you that John has received the Revelation on Saturday; others will tell you that the day has been Sunday. And you, will you reply Me in the same way?"

"Lord, let it not be! What could I receive from such comprehension of the Lord's Day? By this look, I will not understand the secret of the Lord's remaining and why the disciple John became the God's servant John..."

"Then, it will be better for you to read My words to Peter in the Gospel. Look how I told him about John:

"If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?"

However, John really remained alive until I returned. And, how did I return, Stefan?"

The words of Jesus were like opening of a light door in front of my heart. Therefore, I told Him:

"Lord, You Are the Lord's Day! You Are the Light that enlightens the life of every man. And, if Father called the Light "Day", when He was creating the world, it was because You were the Lord's Day. So, John had waited the realization of Your promise, like a coming of the Lord's Day..."

"Just right, My boy! Just John was given to write the words, by which I defined Myself; and, he had been attentive in them for the whole his lifetime:

"I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me..." (John 14:6)

Do you understand now that the disciple John went along the Way, in order to be enlightened by the Truth and to find the Life? The Word of My Father was mighty and active in the destiny of this disciple. Since, this Word says about the Way of the righteous man:

“The path of the righteous is like the first gleam of dawn, shining ever brighter till the full light of day...” (Proverbs 4:18)

Do you understand now why John was in the Spirit?”

“Yes, Lord! It is because You had risen in his heart till the Full Light of Day...”

“Then, is it difficult for you to understand why the disciple became a servant? Was not the greatest desire of your Lord just this – to receive an image of a servant? How many of you remember that the Son of Man did not come to reign, but to serve, and to give His life as redemption for many people? Therefore, go and tell all people, who love Me that:

GOD’S SERVANT IS THAT MAN, BY WHOM LORD RECEIVES AN IMAGE OF A SERVANT!

Sooner or later, all My disciples receive an Image of a servant. This is the revelation, by which I want to encourage My faithful rest. Since, that man, who is lying on My Bosom, he will understand that the Power and the Will bear My Image. Until This Image is on the earth, gathering the scattered sheep, until He heals the sick men, raises the fallen and confirms the weak ones, by this moment, the perfect expectation of My Father and Lord your God will be for you like the mentioned above:

TO RECEIVE THE IMAGES OF SERVANTS!

Since, as the Sovereign Lord receives an image of a servant, so the servant will receive the image of his Lord and Sovereign.

However, woe to that servant, who has become a master, without the Master has ever served by him. Such one will be thrown outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

As to those, who want the destiny and calling of John in their lives, let such men follow Me to the Cross. Since, there, I will talk to them in a perfect fullness about the deed of the God’s Prophetic Spirit...”

3. “DEAR WOMAN, HERE IS YOUR SON...”

(INSTEAD OF CONCLUSION)

My brother! Did the apostle of Christ and the Prophet of Father become precious for you? Do you understand that, when you want to be close to the God’s heart, you will surely look for the Bosom of Jesus? And, while some people are hurry to take from the table what is good for eating and to go out in order to betray the Lord for the silver coins of this world, you will embrace the Lord more powerfully and your heart will forever be joined with His heart. I pray to my Lord to put in your heart the precious standing of John; that standing, by which he forever remained in the Gospel like a disciple, and in the Revelation – like a servant. However, from the Gospel to the Revelation, there is a Way to be covered and worth to be paid; therefore, let your personal walking with the Lord begin from the high mountain of the Lord’s Transfiguration and lead you to the Cross of the Lord.

First, let me lead you on the high mountain. Since, Lord Jesus led me just there and told me:

“I want for you to remember the words, which I was talking to James, Peter and John, when I was going down from the mountain together with them. I want for you to see careful the target of the Lord your God...”

I looked at the Gospel and I read there how Jesus says:

“To be sure, Elijah comes and will restore all things. But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but have done to him everything they wished. In the same way the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands...” (Matthew 17:11-12)

Then, Jesus asked me:

“Do you notice the two aspects in My words? Do you notice how the second aspect seemingly displaces the first?”

“Yes, Lord! I perceive how You say that Elijah will come and will restore all things. After that, You add that he has already come through the service of John the Baptist; however, he was abused and rejected...”

"Then, have in mind that My latter words do not displace the former ones at all. My Holy Spirit has charged with the Spirit and Power of Elijah now, so that all things might be restored. Those, who listen to My voice and obey My servants, the prophets, they will surely find their life in the verses, talking about the God's restoration. These verses declare:

"...and if you spend yourselves in behalf of the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness, and your night will become like the noonday. The LORD will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame. You will be like a well-watered garden, like a spring whose waters never fail. Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins and will raise up the age-old foundations; you will be called Repairer of Broken Walls, Restorer of Streets with Dwellings..."

(Isaiah 58:10-12)

Then, know, Stefan that the charge of the late rain is just like this. It is a charge, full with the Power of the Prophetic Spirit. Just the men, born by This Spirit will rebuild the ancient ruins of the churches, full with vainglory and worldly spirit. Just the men, born by This Spirit will raise up the age-old foundation of the apostles and prophets. Just the men, born in This Spirit will repair the broken walls and the Life of My Holy Spirit will come back into the Temple.

Whoever receives My words in this prophetic book, let him follow Me to the Cross and let him be inspired by the vision, which I am going to give you now..."

After His last words, Lord made a vision appear before my eyes. I could see how my Lord was crucified on the Cross of Golgotha, and His mother Mary and His disciple John were standing there, under the Cross, near His bleeding feet. In this moment, Lord looked at Mary and told her:

"Dear woman, here is your son..."

Then, He looked at His disciple John and told him with great love:

"Here is your mother..."

After these words, John embraced the sobbing Mary. Looking at the Christ's disciple, even if I could see how no John, but Christ Himself embraced

His mother. Then, I understood the message of this vision. Since Lord, Who was crucified on the Cross, gave His heart to John a moment before giving His Spirit to Father. He knew that He was alive in the heart of His disciple and while Mary was looking at the love in the John's heart, she would not lose her Son even for a moment. Lord knew that just John was the disciple, who might feel Mary like his mother. And, despite everything in the vision was amazingly clear, the message, which Lord was giving to me, was much deeper than what I could suppose. Jesus made the vision stop. Then, He told me:

“Do you know, My boy that, a moment before dying on the Cross of Golgotha, I felt John and Mary to be nearest of My heart?”

“Yes, Lord! You looked at Mary and pointed her son. Then, You looked at John and pointed his mother.”

“Why did I do all this, Stefan? Have you got eyes to see the deep in My words? Have you got eyes to see that, after Golgotha, I would rise again at My Father's place, and the world would always need Me? Remember how I told My apostles:

“In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me...” (John 16:16)

Was not the moment before the Cross such like this? In a little while neither John, nor Mary would see Me any more, and then after a little while, they would see me again...”

“How would they see You again, Lord?” – I asked. And Lord told me:

“Did not John remain in the Bosom of his Lord? Was not he the nearest man to His heart? Then, why do you ask Me how they would see Me again? Am not I the Love of Father? And, when this Love lives in you, am not I inside you? Just in this way, I was in the heart of John. That is why I told Mary that even if she lost her Son, she would find Him again. So, from that hour, John took her at his home. Therefore, I tell all people:

EVERYBODY, WHO REMAINS ON MY BOSOM, HE WILL SURELY TAKE IN HIS HOME THAT ONE, WHO BEARS ME!

Since, if Mary bore Me by flesh once, now, My people bear Me by Spirit through the faith in their hearts. Therefore, I will point them and I will tell them:

“You, who are doing the Will of My Father in Heaven, you are My brothers, and sisters, and mothers. Let everyone of you look in the womb of his heart! Let everybody see there that one, who bears Me in your life, namely – the God’s Faith in your hearts! I, Lord and God Jesus Christ tell this Faith:

“Woman, here is Your Son! Faith, here is Your Power!”

Since, a woman giving birth to a child has pain, but when her baby is born she forgets the anguish because of her joy that a child is born into the world.

In the same way, faith giving birth has pain, but when I am born in you, then the mother has His Son and will rejoice for Him.

And, when My Father sees from Heaven that the faith bears His Son in the human hearts, then He will stretch His hand out to you and will tell Me:

“Here is the Faith, which bears You! Here is the Faith, which offers You before My Face. Receive this Faith in Your Home and take good care for it to live forever...”

If it is true the written that, from that hour, John took Mary in his home, it would also be true My promise to you:

Since, an hour has come, when Lord will take His Faith in His Home. And those men, in who it has been alive, able to bear Christ, they will have the Eternal Life of the Kingdom.

Whoever understands these words of Mine, he will also comprehend why John was the man, beloved by the Lord.

Whoever understands these words of Mine, he will also comprehend why John became son of Mary, and Mary – mother of John!

Whoever receives these words of Mine, he will also understand that John was the evident apostle of Love and the hidden prophet of Father. Since, he received in his heart both the God’s Power and the God’s Will. So, he will remain in the God’s Bosom forever.

Now, the Prophetic Spirit of Father calls His sons and daughters!

Those, who obey the Word, come through the prophets, sent by My Father, they will surely remain in My Bosom!

I pronounced it! I spoke it!”
