TO YOUR HEART

My dear brother! Receive the word of this book like a stretched hand by the Lord. Receive in your heart that the time of the greatest wickedness, when Lord appears His greatest Mercy to us, is now. His Mercy is so great that even separated from Him, because of the sin and vanity of this world, the people remain in the heart of Father. Since, everybody has in himself one little part of the Lord's Spirit. Everybody has in himself the divine sparkle of his spirit; that sparkle, which God lighted Himself, when He was creating the first men; that sparkle, which God Himself began to turn into fiery flame from the moment, when the Holy Spirit poured out on the earth, in order to live in the hearts of those men, who have given their life in the hand of Jesus.

One of the deepest Heavenly truths, which radically changed my life for Jesus, was hidden in the words of the Saviour in the Gospel. These words declare:

“And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins, the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, new wine must be poured into new wineskins...”

(Luke 5:37-38)

In the beginning of my faith I could not understand these words of Jesus. I could see neither their wisdom, nor their great and fateful power. However, then trials came in my life; trials, by which Lord showed me again and again that His wine could not be held in me, since the skin has not become new yet. So I had to give up the longing for the new wine and to pay attention to the new skin. Only when I let the Lord make inside me the new skin, only then I began to feel the real taste and the splendid effect of the new wine. Since, this new wine was no only the teaching of Jesus. No! It has become the life of Jesus inside me. Thanks to this abundant life, which Lord Himself began to live in my heart, it happened that visions and revelations, enlightening and pure Heavenly pictures were bearing in my spirit. I gave all them to the churches, according to the power and chances, given to me by Jesus. Then, the greatest problems came in my life. The same picture appeared in front of me and I registered it in my own life. Being filled with the Lord's wine, I tried to pour it in old and torn wineskins; in the first moment, I fell in rapture with the effect, coming by that. Most people were touched, inspired and kindled for the God's deed – just so as a wineskin wets in its first touch with the wine. However, the time was going by and, because of the wearing of the wineskin, the wine was running out so categorical that I could no more recognize these people. I was trying to compare their instantly kindling with the last chilling and I could not explain it. I was reading their first letters, full with words of rapture and admiration before the Lord; then, I could only hear their guilty mumble. It looked out even if I was doing nothing but lighting small candles of Bengal light, looking at their beautiful sparkles and finally, with sorrow in my heart, looking at the dying slag, wondering why it had not the God's Fire. Just then, Jesus provoked my prayer and thought. Just then, I understood that nobody was able to fill new wine in old wineskins. Just then, I comprehended why I had to write this book. All revelations in it had to be useful for all people, who would like to be like new wineskins before the eyes of Jesus. Since, the new wineskin – this is a new man, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness. Since, the new wineskin means for a man to be united with the Vine Christ so that he could always give his fruit. New wineskin means to make in you a dwelling for the Lord, so that He might be exceptionally real in your heart – so real and living that even your own existence and earth "self" might have no power over your heart.

I would like for you to know that the way for the writing of this book passed through the deep layers of the Word. Before inspiring my spirit with it, Lord Jesus came to me and told me:

"Do you see how many people flamed with the Word of the Prophetic Spirit and how few of them remained after the wind of evil and hatred?"

"Yes, Jesus! I see that!" – I said and continued:

"I have not greater pain in my heart than the pain to look how people deal unfaithfully and turn back and aside like a deceitful bow. It seems to me that I can not endure even one retreat and betrayal more..."

Lord looked at me and said:

"If I live in your heart, you will surely be able to endure all the pain because of all the betrayals. When I was preaching the Kingdom of Heaven in Israel, then thousands people were going after Me.

However, only seventy of all rested with Me. Then, from among the seventy ones, only twelve rested; after the Judas' betrayal, they were only eleven. Finally, in the moment, when I was delivered to the guards of the chief priests, all people dispersed. You should endure the abandonment, as I endure it, too.

Since, where there is abandonment, there is also retrieval according to the God's Mercy. The greater the pain of the abandonment is, the greater the joy of the retrieval will be, too. And you, can you really forget what the splendid verses of the psalm declare? Can you really forget the written about the God's jealousy?"

While Jesus was talking to me, the verses of that splendid psalm about the retrieval had already emerged before my eyes. They declared:

"When the LORD brought back the captives to Zion, we were like men who dreamed. Our mouths were filled with laughter, our tongues with songs of joy. Then it was said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them." The LORD has done great things for us, and we are filled with joy. Restore our fortunes (captivity-KJV), O LORD, like streams in the Negev (in the south-KJV). Those who sow in tears will reap with songs of joy. He who goes out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with him..."

(Psalm 126)

Then, Jesus kept talking. He said:

"I will surely do great deeds and I will restore all men, who moan and sigh under the yoke of the Babylon power. By you, I will give them those testimonies of My Word, which will reveal them how great the Salvation and Redemption is. Since, even if they are bound and captivated by the false doctrines of the vainglory, I will surely find a way to their hearts, provided that they hear My voice and ask for revival from the Lord their God by all their hearts. So My Word will not be broken, but It will surely realize all the destinies, written in it. Now, I tell all those, who the prophetic messages reach through my servant to:

Let Me put on you new wineskins!

Let Me reign in your hearts!

Let Me turn you back to your first love!

Since, the last time has come on the earth. This is time, when the children of Abraham will become stones, but the stones – children of Abraham. This is time, in which lots of churches will become prostitutes, and one prostitute will become Church!

Since, the time of the prostitute Rahab has come now. This is time, in which those, who are pointed by My Father, will be kept and guarded from the time of the Great Sorrow. This is time, when My Father will repay from His bitter anger over the coming kingdom of Antichrist. However, a moment before that, He will cover and take with His hand those, whose life has found its reflection in the life of Rahab. Now, let Me inspire you to write the word of this prophetic book; for this aim, I will reveal to you the clear marks of everything that is forthcoming...”

After His last words, Lord made the vision with Him stop. Then, the Power of the Holy Spirit seized my mind and heart. I had to see how the sense of the whole our life was nothing but working on the field of that faith, which Lord gave to the prostitute Rahab.

I pray the God for your eyes to be opened!

I pray the God for your heart to be meek!

So you will be able to rise on the house roof – so as Rahab did it! So you will keep the faith, which Father has gifted you by His Son!

Amen and Amen!

1. THE SECRET SPIES OF HEAVEN

Do you know my brother that there is one deep secret that nobody has probably talked to you about? When I comprehended this secret, my heart filled with joy, because God gave me a great access to His heart. Let me tell you how I comprehended this secret. Jesus raised me in heavenly places; figuratively said, He turned the reel of the time back. My eyes could see the people of Israel in the time after the death of the God's servant Moses. I could notice thousands of people and I knew inside me that all these men had their destiny by the God and Father. I knew that Father had written the life of every one of them yet before the creation of the world. However, I also noticed something else. Jesus gave me to see two ropes. The first one was a clear rope of Light, which had tied only definite men. These were chosen men, despite they did not outwardly differ from the rests. Then I asked the Lord, since my amazement was full:

"Lord, what is this clear rope of Light, which has tied particular men of Israel?"

In reply, Jesus told me:

"These are the men, foreseen by Father to get into His Holy Scripture. Their life closely follows the way of the God's Prophetic Spirit, which touches the Beginning and the End. Since, if Father had to show the life of every one of the children of Israel, then, the world would not hold the written word. That is why Father has marked with the light rope only the men, chosen and foreknown to enter the Holy Scripture with their destinies. And, when you, led by the wisdom of the Holy Spirit, begin to get your inspiration from the men, tied with this light rope, then the power of their destiny becomes power of your destiny, too. As to the others, who are tied with the black and dark rope, they are those, who God has prepared like objects of His wrath; so that, looking at their life, you might be disgusted with it and their fate to be lesson and warning for the future generations..."

I was listening to the Lord, when something flashed into my heart. Then, I asked Him again:

“Does this mean, Lord that all these men, who are tied with the light rope, appear the invisible Life of God and His Perfect longing concerning the life on the earth?”

“So it is, Stefan! In this relation, the Bible can not be history, too. It is the constant activity of the Spirit of Father and blissful are all people, whose hearts are tied with the light rope of Salvation. Since, whoever reads My Word with My eyes, he will see the Life of the God and the death of the devil on each page of the Scripture. He will see how some men are saved by the Life of the God, but others are killed by the death of the devil...”

The word of Jesus made me understand that the more blind the world makes us, the more seeing the Bible makes us, too. Since, there are not any states of life, situation or a problem, which are not appeared in the eternally living God’s Word. I had a deep inner need to be led by my Lord in this book just in this way. So, I saw that the former Jericho, which had once risen in the way of the Lord’s nation, is not more different than the Jericho of today. Since, the ancient one had high strongholds. The present one also has high strongholds. The ancient one had its king. The present one has its king, too. If the leader Joshua sent spies to the ancient Jericho once, now, the leader Jesus Christ has sent spies to the present Jericho, too... Do not wonder at this fact, because, from this moment on, I am going to talk about the secret spies of Heaven. I pray to the Lord to give you reason and inspiration, so that you might also feel this light rope, which I saw in the vision by Jesus, too. Lord saw my concentration over the biblical verses and told me:

“I want for you to catch the light rope. That is why I will raise you in heavenly places, so that you might see how the biblical verses have become destiny now for all churches of the vainglory and for all messengers of Father...”

After His words, Lord only touched my head with His hand and I found myself over the very city of Jericho. The view of the city openly struck me. In one of the previous my books, talking about the God’s Mercy, Jesus had given me to see it; now, however, my impression was much more different. This city was encircled by high strongholds. Around the strongholds, there were guards, armed with swords and shields. It seemed that nobody could pass without being noticed by the guards. Behind the walls of these fortress, there were thousands people, who were living there. Inside the city itself, there were lots of buildings, and one constantly "Alleluia!" and "Amen!" might be heart out of them. Then, Jesus told me:

"Look at this city, because My Father sent you just to it. In the very sending by My Father, you had the testimony, which many others have not. Therefore, read what the biblical verses about the undertaken by Joshua declare..."

I looked at the verses and I read the written:

"Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Shittim. "Go, look over the land," he said, "especially Jericho." So they went..."

(Joshua 2:1)

Then, Jesus kept talking to me again, saying:

"Do you notice that Joshua does not send whatever spies, but...secret spies? What does it mean, Stefan? How could you explain the present reality over this city of strongholds? Will not the spies from Heaven be "secret" now, too?"

"Yes, my Lord! There surely is such spiritual analogy, despite it is not so easy for me to understand it. Does not Father send His prophets, so that they might be evident? Then, why are the spies from Heaven secret in this verse?"

Jesus smiled; then, He said:

"The prophets of My Father will always remain secret. Since, the God's servants are evident for the God's people; for those, who live behind the strongholds of Jericho, however, they remain secret. Since, look now that the inhabitants of Jericho hold in high honour very evident men..."

Lord had raised His forefinger and He was pointing at something like a tribune, around which there were thousands of inhabitants of Jericho. One man rose on the tribune; he raised his hand and said:

"Let us welcome one of the most evident prophets of the God. Let all we applaud his name!"

The immense crowd cried with rapture, when "the evident prophet" appeared on the scene, dressed with the possibly most expensive clothes and covered his hands with gold rings. He began with his speech, which I could not hear, since it was not the target of my Lord. Looking at me, Jesus asked me:

“Do you understand now why the God’s prophets are secret, and the prophets of the devil - evident? Do you understand now that everybody, who is agree with the strongholds of Jericho, comes in this city evidently and the inhabitants meet him with rapture? He does not come to expose or to call for repentance. He comes to inject new portions of religious self-confidence and so to confirm still more the fortresses of Jericho in the human hearts. Then, tell Me, would not you become evident if everybody fell in rapture with your words? Would not you become evident if thousands pastors had longed for your presence and had sown finances in your hundreds offices all over the world? However, when anybody has sent by My Father to declare against the wickedness of Jericho and to appear the whole its deceit and falseness, all its bows before Mammon, the whole its haughtiness and exalting, then, the God’s Prophet can not be evident, but secret. Since, nobody of the men, tied and possessed by religion, will recognize him like a God’s messenger. You saw by yourself that those, who were pointing at themselves and were in a hurry to please the sin of the many, they were, who the inhabitants of Jericho considered to be evident. Now, look at the spiritual target in the words of Joshua. By what task did the leader of Israel send the spies?”

“Lord, he sent them to look over the land, especially Jericho. So it is written...”

“So must be written, Stefan. Since, when now, My Father sends His prophets, and you as one of them, He also commands:

“Go, look over the land...especially Jericho...”

Do you understand in these words that it is a duty of the God’s messengers to look over no only Jericho, but the land, too? And, when My Father sends anybody to look over the land, does not it mean that such man does not live on the earth, but in heavenly places? Do you understand then that the Word of the God’s Prophetic Spirit comes to expose all men, who live on the earth or in Jericho? Since, to live on the earth means for you to look for the earth, to dream for the earth and your heart to be attracted by the earth things. Therefore, My Apostle Paul wrote:

“The first man was of the dust of the earth, the second man from heaven. As was the earthly man, so are those who are of the earth; and as is the man from heaven, so also are those who are of heaven. And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so shall we bear the likeness of the man from heaven. I declare to you, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable...” (1 Corinthians 15:47-50)

Tell Me then, Stefan! Do you understand what means to look over the land and Jericho?”

“Yes, Lord! It means to be exposed the land and Jericho. Since, when Father looks over the earth and sees all the vainglorious churches, crowded on it; when Father sees how the haughty and ungodly city of the strongholds sings and feasts in a day of total retreat; then, this Jericho is surely doomed to be ruined and its strongholds to fall in one moment...”

“So it is, My boy. However, there is a living rest of Father inside Jericho. This rest is captivated. He sighs and lives among the fornication of the rests. However, it is the God’s rest and My Father has sent His servants, the prophets just to it. Therefore, in the biblical tale, the spies of Joshua did not remain out of Jericho, but they found a shelter at a woman according to My Father’s heart. So, you understand that, a moment before repaying over Jericho from His fiery anger, Father will save and keep those, who, like the prostitute Rahab, receive the Word by the God’s servants, the prophets. The mission of the Heavenly messengers and spies will continue by the time, when all this happens and until the men, pointed by Father are restored and taken out of Jericho. Then, blissful are those, who receive them in their homes and who open their hearts for them! Blissful is also the prostitute Rahab, since I am Lord, Who wish her from her fornication, in order to raise her highly before My eyes. Now, let Me lead you farther in the vision...”

2. THE PROSTITUTE RAHAB OR THE SCOPE FOR THE FREE SPIRIT

My brother! Listening to the words of my Lord, I understood how diametrically opposed the thoughts of the Lord and the thoughts of the men were. Like men, we create us one model of perception and outlook on life, which we call "ideology". The most tragically in this view of life is the fact that the Truth is missing in it. Since, led by his own notions of life, one would tell categorically:

"This is good, and that – evil. This is ugly, and that – beautiful..."

Then, captivated by his own notions and views, he would stigmatize what he considers to be evil or ugly. That is why no wonder that many are at a loss with the title of this chapter. How is it possible for one prostitute to be related with the scope of the free human spirit? Well, my brother, look better at the God's Word! Look by the point of view of the God and Father, and ignore the reflexes of your human education. Since, many can not relate the word "prostitute" with the benevolence of Father. However, I want to convince you in the things, which are not mine, but belong to the God. That is why I will remind you one verse by Jesus, so that you might understand the fullness of these reasoning. Here are the words, which Jesus declared before the Pharisees:

"You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of men, but God knows your hearts. What is highly valued among men is detestable in God's sight..." (Luke 16:15)

You see by yourself that, what is highly valued among men is detestable in God's eyes. Do you know why? It is due to the fact that the God's view is always different than the human one. Now, look how the words of the Lord might be read, too:

"What is detestable among men is highly valued in God's sight..."

Then, think over the fact that each prostitute is detestable among men. That prostitute Rahab, who has lived in Jericho once, she has also been detestable among the inhabitants of Jericho. However, despite the men consider many things to be detestable, God will always and on every place surprise them by people and things, considered by them to be detestable wretched. So, you will fully understand why Lord Jesus was talking to those, who considered themselves to be righteous in their own eyes:

“I tell you the truth, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you...” (Matthew 21:31)

However, even if those, who are possessed by the spirit of the Pharisees, continue to despise and consider to be wretched all those, who are not “righteous” like them, Jesus will nettle them in the hearts through the words of Apostle Paul:

“But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. He chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things - and the things that are not - to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him...” (1 Corinthians 1:27-29)

Now, let me continue with the vision of my Lord Jesus Christ, so that you might see how Father chose once the most lowly and despised woman in Jericho and found her to be worthy to live in the camp of His people Israel. In the same way, Lord Jesus will find now the most lowly and despised men amidst the last Jericho, in order to put to shame by them all lustrous icons on the vainglorious conferences.

Here are the words, which Jesus kept talking to my heart in the vision, which he was giving to me:

“See now and comprehend the things I show to you. Since now, the messengers of My Father will be received only by men, considered to be detestable for the vainglorious societies. Since, when you refuse to fall on your back on their conferences, when you refuse to listen to the sermons about money, when you refuse to take a part in the common religious hypocrisy, then you become very inconvenient for the vainglorious people. You become a thorn in their eyes, since you do not want to share their sin. Then, they surely stigmatize you as man “out of doctrines”, since you do not respond to their vision about the Salvation by God. Here, such is Rahab nowadays. If you see the spirit of her very name, you will see that Rahab means “wideness and scope”. Then, think what people need, in order to receive the Word of the God's Prophetic Spirit? And, what are My first messengers once faced with? Since, they also felt over their hearts the religious malice and hostility of many people..."

The words of Jesus were like a lighthouse, under which light I could see the entreating words of the Christ's Apostle, who was saying:

"We have spoken freely to you, Corinthians, and opened wide our hearts to you. We are not withholding our affection from you, but you are withholding yours from us. As a fair exchange - I speak as to my children - open wide your hearts also..." (2 Corinthians 6:11-13)

Then, my Lord told me:

"Do you see that you also suffer these verses? Since, I gave you love to all people and taught you to give freely, without looking for your own things. So, your hearts was opened to everybody. You were not withholding your affection to them, but the men, touched by the Word, were withholding theirs to you; and they remained ungrateful and evil. Do you understand now that such men will never find the destiny of Rahab? Since, Rahab means scope and wideness. When Paul told you "open wide your hearts also!", he was inspired just by Rahab and its sacrifice. Since, only one free human spirit would be able to give wideness and scope to the prophetic word. And, only the hearts, known the Truth, are free. In the rests, there is no place for My teaching, since the devil has exchanged it long ago for a teaching of other spirit, other Jesus and other gospel. Therefore, My appeal for all people, who hear My voice today, is this:

OPEN YOUR HEARTS, AND I WILL FILL THEM! SINCE, "RAHAB" MEANS WIDENESS AND SCOPE! ONLY WHEN YOU GIVE FREEDOM AND SCOPE TO THE PROPHETIC WORD IN YOUR HEARTS, ONLY THEN FATHER WILL CONFIRM YOU TO BE UNSHAKABLE AND STRONG LIKE RAHAB!

Now, let Me turn you back to the vision, so that you might see under what conditions Rahab welcomed the spies of the God's nation..."

After the words of Jesus I was again in the vision over Jericho. The city of strongholds had sunk in darkness, since it was a night. Then, I perceived the spies themselves, since they were shining with the God's Light. Just entered the doors of the city, they were met by Rahab and she led them in its home, which was on the very fortified wall. Then, Jesus told me:

“Do you notice that the spies come at night?”

“Yes, Lord! So it is written in the biblical verses...”

“The same happens now with the prophets of My Father, since Father calls them in service just in the time of the greatest deceit, in the night of the devil. It is a night, which many consider to be day, without being aware of the fact what deadly dream they have been captivated by. Then, think! Do not I also say in My proverb that:

“At midnight the cry rang out: “Here's the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!” (Matthew 25:6)

Do you know who will come out, Stefan? Only those men, who realize that they have been asleep, will do it. As to the others, who consider themselves to be alert, they will never reach to the Bridegroom, since they already have their own bridegroom. As to Rahab, who received the spies, her deed did not escape the notice of the Jericho's king. Since, there always might be found enough hypocrites and betrayers, who hurry to report him, suchlike their ancestors:

“Look! Some of the Israelites have come here tonight to spy out the land...” (Joshua 2:2)

Now, tied and possessed by the same this adverse to My Father spirit, traitors and hypocrites hurry to alarm the leaders of their unions that some books have appeared amidst the fortified city of the vainglory, which undermine its foundations. Do not these children of whatever perverted “gospel” know that My Father looks at their abominations? Do not they really know that His Deed can not be frustrated or broken down? Do not they know that the men, pointed by His hand, will surely keep the Prophetic Word just so, as Rahab kept the spies? Then, tell Me, Stefan, why did not the men, sent by the king of Jericho, find the spies of Israel?”

“My Lord! They did not find them, because Rahab had hidden them in a safe place...”

“Here in this way, I will give all My people Power and Wisdom now, so that they might hide and keep on a safe place the Prophetic Word, come from Father, by the prophets, sent by Him. Blessed are those, who let Me now confirm them in Rahab’s position. Such ones will surely be called a living rest of the God. Since, whoever receives a prophet in the name of prophet, he will receive reward of prophet! And, whoever kept My words in his heart, he will understand what the Redemption on the house roof is like...”

After His last words, Lord kept silence, and I took up writing everything, which He was talking to me. So, I reached to the deepest revelation from the life of Rahab – the Revelation about the house roof.

3. THE HOUSE ROOF OF FIDELITY

In antiquity, the Romans invented proverb, which declared:

“My home is my stronghold!”

This proverb has passed through the ages, so that it might be heard from the mouth of many people now. However, even if invented by Romans, this proverb is very true and there is something fateful in it. Let us reason over this. One builds its home and decides that this home becomes his stronghold. Is it true? Are not the human deeds so weak and worthless that God always brings them to vanity? In the last reckoning, are not all deeds of the men under the sun vanity, too? Then, what is this deceitful self-confidence, by which some men declare that their home is their stronghold? Let me tell you, my brother that they have a right. Since, the human deeds are really high stronghold in the hearts of the men. They think everything they do will be everlasting. However, this is not true. Therefore, keep that faith in Jesus, by which you would be able to say:

“His Home is my stronghold!”

Since, the devil can enter your home, but he can not enter His home. Your home might be broken and ruined, but His home survives forever. Then, think – why has Jericho become the city of strongholds? Is not it due to the fact that there are many people gathered in it, who have decided that their human deeds are strongholds – high enough to give them enviable self-confidence? Well, have in mind that His Home might be built only by Him. When you try to build your own home without His help; when He is not the householder of the house, but you; then, you may expect surprising attacks from the enemy. Well, what about the prostitute Rahab? What about the last living rest of the God in this cruel and trouble time? Do not think that I would give you the answer of these questions! Since, the Answer – my Lord Jesus Christ was standing over my heart in Light and Blessing. Here are the words, by which He began to talk to me:

“Look what the prostitute Rahab did. Since now, My Father expects from all those, who have been touched and waken by Him and by His Prophetic Spirit, to do the same as she did toward the spies of Israel. Since, My boy, the house roof of the last Rahab is not any usual roof of ordinary house. Now, I am going to give you a vision, which will explain everything to you and you will understand my words...”

After the words of Jesus, a vision appeared in front of my eyes. I could see an ordinary house and a man in front of it. This man had fallen on his knees and he was calling for Jesus to become a Lord of his life. Then, my Lord went close to the man, who was praying. He caught him with His hands and raised him. Then, He told him:

“Here, I heard your prayer and I saw your tears. Therefore, I come to live in your heart.”

The man bowed before Jesus and smiled; after that, he pointed at his house with hand, and told Him:

“Enter my house, Lord...”

However, Jesus replied:

“I can not live in your home. I can only live in My home. Are you ready to deny yourself? Are you ready to give your life to Me?”

The man fell again on his knees and said:

“Here, Lord! Take everything, which I have and do with it what it is pleased to You...”

So, Lord Jesus took a sword in His hand; He raised His hand against it, and began to break it down until it was in ruins. Then, strong wind blew the ruins away; Jesus thrust a hand into His bosom, took His Word out and put it like a foundation. A moment later, a Light Hand appeared out of the heavenly areas, which let down one splendid and light home. When the home was put on its place, Lord looked at the man and told him:

“From now on, this Home is My Home and I will live in it. I am its Householder and Manager. I will be responsible for it from now on and in the Eternity...”

The man, who was ecstatically looking at the beautiful Heavenly Home, succeeded in uttering only these words:

“And me, Lord? Where will I live?”

Lord smiled and told him:

“It is not for you to live in My Home, because I am, Who live in it. However, I have prepared a place for you on the roof. Your life will be there. The place, determined by My Father for you, is there...”

So, after His words, Lord caught the man with His hands, put him on the roof, and He Himself came through the door of the house and closed after Him...

In the next moment, the vision stopped and Jesus, Who was standing near me and was smiling, asked me:

“Do you understand my vision?”

I answered:

“Yes, Lord! By this vision, You wanted to show me what the Perfect Will of Father about the confirmation of our spiritual home was. And, this Will says that everybody, who has given his life in Your hands and who has denied himself, he has not his own life yet and he should only survive on the roof of the house itself...”

Listened to my words, Jesus continued, saying:

“Did not I say in the Gospel that just this was the Will of My Father? I told you these words:

“What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs...” (Matthew 10:27)

And I commanded you these words, too:

“Let no one on the roof of his house go down to take anything out of the house...” (Matthew 24:17)

Well, look at the prostitute Rahab and see that the messengers came at her in the dark and quietly notified her that they were messengers of the God’s people. What else could Rahab do, save giving shelter to the God’s messengers on the roof of her house? And, how many of you paid attention to My words, in order to understand that Lord their God had always expected such self-sacrifice from His children? That is why the last Rahab, who clearly hears the voice of Father, will surely do the written word. Since, when the prophets of My Father come to her with the Word, which has been given them from above, she will surely preserve the prophetic messages on the house roof. So, tell My people and let them remember that:

THE WORD, COMING FROM ABOVE, MAY BE KEPT AND PRESERVED ONLY ABOVE!

To keep the Word above, it means for you to put the deed of the Prophetic Spirit higher than your own life. If I gave you the vision with the house and you saw that I was the householder of the house, but the man lived on the roof, then, tell Me: What else the roof of the spiritual home might be, save the God's Love that stands in the highest place in My Father's eyes? If My people love the prophets of My Father by the whole power of their hearts, then, will they be frightened at the servants of Jericho and its king? And, if the house roof is a high place for the spiritual man, then, how more unattainable it will be for the fleshly strains of graduated theologians and religious hypocrites? Can anybody triumph over the Word of My Father if you have laid It on the right place? Can anybody take away the audacity and zeal from you if you firmly hold the Truth, in which you are convinced? Can anybody turn you into slaves of men if you remember that you are bought with price, what the king of Jericho and his toadies can not offer? However, if anybody reads My Holy words in the books, which I gave to My servant; if he has not let Me be Household of the home, but instead, he has decided to establish it by his human righteousness, let such man know that the Word of the Prophetic Spirit will not be of any use to him. Since, such man will not hide the God's words on the roof and when the soldiers of Jericho come, they will surely plunder everything, which they find in his heart.

Well, look at the next important stroke from the life of Rahab. She not only took up the spies on the house roof, but she hid them under the stalks of flax she had laid out on the roof. What do these stalks of flax mean? And once, what did the servants of My Father use the flax for?"

"My Lord! The chief priests were wearing the clothes of flax, when they were coming into the Tent of Meeting. They were wearing the clothes of flax, when they were stepping to the Holiest Place of the tabernacle. You also had the clothes of flax, when You appeared Yourself to the prophets of Father in the Old Testament. That is why I believe that the flax personifies the Holiness of Father and purity of His servants..."

“Just right, My boy! When you read in “The book of Joshua” that Rahab has sheltered the spies on the house roof, and it has been covered with stalks of flax, you understand that:

THE WORD OF YOUR FATHER IS MORE HOLY AND ELEVATED THAN ALL YOUR THOUGHTS! IT IS BECOMING TO THE MESSENGERS OF MY FATHER THAT HONOUR, BY WHICH YOU RESPECT THAT ONE, WHO HAS SENT THEM!

Did not I say that whoever received a prophet in the name of prophet, he would receive reward of prophet, too? Here, the Lord’s mouth opens and whoever listens to its life-giving exposing, he will survive among the wise men:

TO RECEIVE A PROPHET IN THE NAME OF PROPHET, IT MEANS FOR YOU TO PUT THE PROPHETIC WORD, COME BY HIM, HIGHER THAN YOUR OWN THOUGHTS!

Only in this way, you will prove that you seek the Face of My Father and wish His heart. For out of the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. And, if anybody looks for the Father’s mouth, he will find His heart, too. However, if anybody tries to spit on His mouth and irritates His pupil, he disgraces the heart of the God, too. I will not give such man My Covenant of Peace. For, there is no peace for the wicked ones. As to the humble men, who will raise the Prophetic Word in their hearts now, they will be called Rahab in full degree and their God will confirm their feet and will lead them on a large scale. I Myself will bind their hearts with ties of eternal love and I will let them see and know Me through the windows of My Home...”

After these words, my Lord kept silence and made the vision stop. For a first time, one splendid truth was exulting in my heart - one truth that was more stimulating than all the rests:

HIS HOME IS MY STRONGHOLD AND HIS ROOF – MY BLISS!

Amen and Amen!
