

THE SIGN OF PROPHET JONAH

A MESSAGE FROM THE CIRCLE OF SALT

STEFAN GLAVCHEV

www.moriah-servant.org

CONTENTS

Towards your heart.....	3
1. "Father, into Your hands I commit My Spirit!".....	8
2. The vision with the gates of Death and Hell.....	11
3. The secret in the sign of prophet Jonah.....	19
4. The first day of Jesus in the prison.....	24
5. The second day of Jesus in the prison.....	31
6. The third day of Jesus in the prison.....	39
7. The Resurrection of Lord Jesus Christ.....	44

“I am the Resurrection and the Life.

He who believes in Me will live, even though he dies...”

(Holy Gospel by John 11:25)

---

---

TOWARDS YOUR HEART

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

If there is a word, which describes my entire suffering and hardship for my Lord and God, through which the old year ended and the new year began, then this word is “privilege”. I am really happy that Jesus granted me the privilege to take part in His cross pain and in all of His Grief. The book “Eloi, Eloi Lama Sabachthani” was the fruit of this great privilege from my Lord, and I have already sent it to God’s children. But now I want you to know that Lord has never spoken to His prophet on the spur of the moment, in order for His servant to have something to do and write just anything. Not at all! Faith in Jesus and serving His Holy Spirit is a Way and a Way is to be walked. There, on this Way, all spiritual realities and hidden secrets of God, which grant Light and scope to a faithful heart, are to be observed and described. This is the reason for me not to stop writing. For my Lord still has not stopped talking to me. The more you walk the Way, the more you build your heart up for His Perfect world, where one day will be raised all, He considers His.

I know that the devil will rave more and more and will be driven mad by the thought that Lord still pricks him with His Sword and crushes him with His visions. I also know that in the following months devil’s fury will erupt like a boiling volcano in order to isolate and turn many away from spiritual communication with the books of God’s Prophetic Spirit. This is something, which he started too evidently last year’s spring, as many people retreated from their spiritual communication with ministry “Moriah” and this added grief and pain to my chains. But now I confess before my Lord Jesus Christ that as long as there is even one heart, which is hungry and thirsty for His prophetic words and vision, I will go on writing and giving freely. I will do this and I will not care about the insults, the betrayals, the enchantments and the disgrace to my name. I will not care about the temptations of one or the other. I will not care about the falling away of the proud and about the malice of the ungrateful ones, as writing down the words of Jesus into books is the Life for me and suffering for His Name is a privilege. As far as those, who have the mouths to curse and tongues to abuse, but lack hearts to thank and bless, let everyone do what they have been taught and what the beliefs in their hearts tell them. When the Judge and the Heart-Interpreter comes, then His Eternal Power and Holiness will expose everything. Then many will be horrified to realize that they have soiled and disgraced what cannot and must not be soiled and disgraced. Yes, I do tell you! Nothing concealed will remain that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known. For if anyone was tempted by me or the books, I write, they were tempted by the Word of the One, Who sent me. If they could not swallow the exposing, then they reproached the Exposer. Therefore, from now on till the end I will explicitly reject in the Name of Jesus all human attempts to judge, reproach or insult me. To all the faint-hearted people, who seek an occasion to confront me and my deed, I will repeat the words of Paul, because Jesus confirmed them as Spirit and Truth in my heart:

“I care very little if I am judged by you or by any human court; indeed, I do not even judge myself. My conscience is clear, but that does not make me innocent. It is the Lord who judges me...”

(I Corinthians 4:3-4)

And more:

“Finally, let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus...” (Galatians 6:17)

If someone, having witnessed the testimonies of the last hundred and seven prophetic books, given to them freely by the servant of the Eternal Shepherd and Teacher, was tempted by the fact that God's prophet found himself fixed and crucified for Jesus, then let such one search for more testimonies like that by other messengers of God. Then they will surely understand that for the most of the other testimonies, they have to go to the trade street-stalls, nearby, and then pay for the book, because of the price on its back. Thus they will understand and comprehend that they have used their money for what neither is bread, nor is able to sate. But, if someone else, who has the very same testimony from God's Boon and generosity, given freely to them by the servant of the Eternal Shepherd and Teacher, humbles and devotes to gratitude and generosity, then such one will never retreat, but will be confirmed as God's chosen and precious one. For, retreating would mean returning to that swamp of human and demonic religion, sticking in it and never again leaving it.

I am writing of all this at the beginning of this prophetic book, for many (who ostensibly found themselves enlightened and soaked with God's Prophetic Spirit, and had read hundreds of visions by ministry "Moriah") turned away and retreated, as they jabbed a knife not so much in my heart, but in the Heart of my Master. Such ones quickly found themselves too wise to dedicate themselves to humbleness and then, knowing so much, to go ahead by themselves and call God's servant a spiritually wasted and already useless man. For, due to their evil attitude to me, they would all certainly say to me:

"Stop writing, Glavchev!

We are sick of your visions! There is nothing more you can teach us. We do not want you, but despise you, for Lord did not raise you with a powerful hand, but till the very present day lets you be the subject of church and shepherd's hatred..."

Was this why you were tempted, mad men? Was this why you sought intercourse with God's prophet – because you thought that one day you would break your fast with the too great blessings, which God will pour over the ministry of His servant? Does not God know the wile of your hearts? Was not this the reason why He confirmed ministry "Moriah" as Abraham's Sacrifice on God's Holy Hill – in order for Him to see who will sacrifice Isaac and be called a friend of God? So if you did not want to offer this Sacrifice, but falsely recognized Stefan Glavchev, as a Bulgarian alternative of the American golden idols, then why did not you continue to invest in your idols? Were not the books by Benny Hinn and Roberts Liardon, which you bought from the church market and put in your libraries, numerous? Did not you chew over the theology of Derek Prince through the years? Then why did you approach the poor servant of God and put your hands under the Spring of his heart, but were not mature enough for a Holy contribution and a Perfect Sacrifice? So, if during the last year Lord called for your generosity and use for His deed, why did you retreat and find reasons against His servant? Did Stefan Glavchev rob and violate any of you? Is there anyone that he lied to or that he treated unfairly? Is not it true that Jesus did not let anyone of you know His prophet in an earthly way, but only through the Prophetic Spirit of God and Father? Then who did you turn away from? From Stefan Glavchev, whom your eyes have not even seen, or from the Most High Exposer, Whose words expose and cut to death? I cry for you, for your crime is too great and your disdain to Jesus – too obvious. That is why, I could not have started this prophetic book in any other words or thoughts, for, I see how many hearts are blinded by the devil and thus are unable to see and understand that a prophet of God is a man, dedicated to service, sacrifice and death, instead of church honours, applauses, conferences and fat payment. For, as long as I serve my Lord and God, the life of prophet Elijah will always stand in front of my eyes. I will ask you, my brother, to recall the life of this God's servant, who settled in the cave, which was far away from the palaces of Ahab and Jezebel. For Elijah did not hurry to leave this prison, until the Word of the Lord told him so:

“Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD!”

In the very same way I will not hasten to abandon my vocation, and I will not leave by myself the religious dungeon, in which I am tortured and oppressed, because of the words of my Lord. For He, Who gives His servants up to suffering, descended by Himself in another dungeon, of which this prophetic book will speak. Now, I tell you that from the very moment my Lord found me, as a Sacrifice, salted with Fire, I feel that I have been crucified on His Cross. The wreath and the thorns are so real that the world has gone pale, but the Cross remained. On this very Cross, crucified just next to Jesus, I heard Him speak in my heart and say:

“You are still standing in My living vision. In this vision I will soon cry out My words “Eloi, Eloi Lama Sabachthani?” As I cry out My words, I will breathe My last on the Cross. As I breathe My last on the Cross, I will turn My Spirit over to the hands of My Father.” When I turn My Spirit over to Father, then I will dedicate you to the secret Gospel of the Son of Man. That Gospel, in which the three days and nights are hidden, while the Son of Man was tasting death and was not resurrected. For, of these three days and nights, I spoke to the adulterous and unrighteous ones, as I said:

"A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth..." (Matthew 12:39-40)

What do you think then? Did My Church recognize the three days and three nights of the Son of Man, when He was in the heart of the earth and preached to the dead? Did you recognize what sign your Lord did, in order to compare it with the sign of prophet Jonah?"

"Jesus! Who would recognize the hidden and the invisible, if You do not open Your mouth, in order to show it to them? Do not we all live in the land of the living and nobody of us knows what is beyond this land and beyond death? For who but You has returned from the kingdom of shadow and dusk, in order to show us, what has been and what will be?"

In reply to my words Jesus smiled in His cross pains on His Crucifix. Then He spoke to me again, as He said:

"To whom else should Lord speak of His eternal secrets, if not to His servants, the prophets? Who else could be the pupils of His eyes, if not the ones, He initially chose and confirmed as luminaries on Heaven? Here, I tell you that I have seen you and have chosen and strengthened you, so that you reveal the secret of My godliness – the depth and the height, the width and the length of My completeness. Therefore, I command you now to follow Me into the proclamation of the secret that has been locked and sealed till the last time. For, this is the secret, connected with the sign of prophet Jonah. The secret, through which your Lord will reveal His three days and nights in the heart of the earth, when I robbed the commands and the powers and was obviously triumphant over them.

As the Dead One, Who revived! As Resurrection and Life! As the One, Who took in His pierced hands the keys of Death and Hell.

Now follow Me into the secret of My sign!"

1. "FATHER, INTO YOUR HANDS I COMMIT MY SPIRIT!"

My brother! My faithful friend!

Standing in the vision next to my Lord and crucified together with Him, I had to wait for the moment of His last breath. This moment was being late and did not come for days. These were days, during which devil's death gripped at my heart with all the thorns and prickles, which the wicked one could possibly find and direct against my service for Jesus. I could say that in no other prophetic book has Jesus allowed me to abide for so long in His vision. For all day long every day I felt death in the very same way – as a crucifix, which absorbs all of my life and my entire spirit. The only thing that kept me going these days was the verses from the apostolic vision, which I not only whispered and repeated, but experienced with every single cell in my body and fibre in my soul.

"We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that his life may be revealed in our mortal body. So then, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you..." (2 Corinthians 4:10-12)

In the very same way, carrying in my body the death of my Lord, I was still looking at Him in the vision as I waited for the time of His last breathe. So, this moment really came, as Jesus, having raised His crestfallen, transfixed by thorns, head through great efforts, looked up to Heaven, as He told Father:

"Father, into Your hands I commit My Spirit..." (Luke 23:46)

No sooner had He spoken His words, than I saw the Body of Jesus turn visibly white, as if His Blood retreated back to His Heart. Then from the very Body the Spirit of Jesus was separated – as pure and as shining in its power, as the Sun. While I was observing the miracle of Christ's Decay, doors from Heaven opened. Then the blazing and Holy hands of Father stretched to the Spirit of my Lord. They not only strengthened Him and made Him glow, but Father Himself spoke to His Son from Heaven, as He said to Him:

"Jesus! My Beloved Son!

Your Blood has been shed and Your Grief has come to an end! The time of Your Glory is rushing towards You! You came out of Me and soon you will return into Me. But now go and open the doors of Death and Hell for three days and nights and descend to the depths of the earth, in order for You to reveal the Salvation to all, whose voices have been calling out to Heaven from the dusk for thousands of years! Those of the ancient ones, who recognize You and accept You – raise them up together with Yourself! In order for You to enter Your Glory as a Glorious One and Your Salvation as the Saviour of all men...”

After these words to Jesus Father’s hands immediately dressed Him in a shiny golden chain armour and threw a fiery mantle over Him. Then, as He gave His Son the polished Sword of the Spirit, His Father pointed the depths of the earth, as He said again:

“I have subdued everything under Your feet, My Son!

Heaven and earth!

Death and Hell!

Commands and powers!

Forces and rules!

Descend into the depth and be the One confirmed by My Heart the One proclaimed by My mouth!”

After these words of Father, His hands raised and hid through the doors of Heaven. Jesus turned with His Spirit to me. As He stretched His Sword and released me from the thorns and prickles of Death, He was already telling Me:

“Now you are really in the secret Gospel of God’s Son, which is familiar only to Father, Son and the Spirit, as well as to those, to whom the Trinity would deign to reveal it. To you, who listened to My Voice and displayed My Righteousness, I say that I will make you like Lord’s mouth, in order for you to proclaim to My entire Church the sign of the Son of Man in the heart of the earth, whose image and shadow was the sign of prophet Jonah.

For there is an ancient world, hidden under the layers of centuries, in which an incredible multitude of people were bearing and dying without knowing Salvation, and without hearing a Shepherd’s Voice and a Peacemaker’s testimony. This world corresponds to the ancient Nineveh – the first of the big cities, built by Nimrod. Jonah was sent by My Father to preach repentance to Nineveh, but the same person was engulfed by a great fish and was inside it three days and three nights. In the very same way the Son of Man, made known in Spirit as a Son of God and Father, descended into depths of the earth, in order to preach to the spirits in the dungeon.

This is what you will see, Lord's servant!

The Glory of three days and nights in the heart of the earth, which is equal to the Glory of the three years, in which I annunciated and saved from Jordan to Golgotha..."

I observed the Magnificence of my Lord, and my heart lowered completely before Him. For, Jesus looked not just like a Heavenly messenger, but rather like a King of Power and God of might. His glorious fiery mantle, His shiny golden chain armour and His polished Sword suggested the greatest possible respect and reverence in everyone, who looked at Him:

Thus, holding my hand with His left hand and having stretched the Sword with His right hand downwards, Lord started revealing before my eyes one of the most magnificent, shaking and glorious visions, which I have ever received from Him.

Please, my brother!

Gather all the awe and admiration in your heart, in order for you to give them away to Jesus, while you read the visions in this prophetic book, For everything in it is from the hidden knowledge of God, which is meant to be a gift and adornment for the people, who Jesus Himself choose for His kings in His Glory. So that what is written comes true:

"It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; to search out a matter is the glory of kings!" (Proverbs 25:2)

2. THE VISION WITH THE GATES OF DEATH AND HELL

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

Before I introduce you to the first of the visions connected with the sign of Lord Jesus Christ in the heart of the earth, I want you to realize that nobody, who belongs to God, should have any fear from Death and Hell. For, Death is only a door to Jesus. Not just the physical, but that real Death, when Lord allowed you to taste His death and liken yourself to His Image. Once Jesus looked at His disciple Simon, as He told him:

“And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell will not overcome it...” (Matthew 16:18)

Do you see how explicit the proclamation of the Lord is? So if the gates of Hell really cannot overcome His Church, should we fear Death at all? God’s Truth will tell us all that Death is feared only by carnal and natural people, who have neither become God’s new creations, nor have bound their hearts with faith in Jesus. Such ones really have a reason to fear. For, in their hearts, they do not see any other life, but the earthly one and no other share, but the share of this world. Here the devil becomes too powerful and fearful. For the fear of Death becomes his most fearful curb on the hearts of the heathens, as well as on a significant part of the Christians, unconfirmed in their faith. Thus each devilish provocation, cunning trick or persecutions turn into a threat for the earthly life of the people, who consider it the only one. You can only guess what a person is capable of, when they have to get away with their lives and preserve their pitiful existence. They are ready to betray, abuse and deny everything, which is unpleasant to Satan, in order to avoid Death. But God’s servant Apostle Paul was not speaking of Death, as of loss or as of something too fearful. No! He said something else in his message:

“For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labour for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know! I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far; but it is more necessary for you that I remain in the body...” (Philippians 1:21-24)

Paul went so far in his sacrifice that in words of deep conviction and perfect sincerity he said in another message:

“I speak the truth in Christ – I am not lying, my conscience confirms it in the Holy Spirit – I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, those of my own race...” (Romans 9:1-3)

Do you understand now that Paul gave to the Church one too wonderful and splendid testimony? The testimony that he fears neither Death, nor Hell. But if you want to understand the completeness of Paul’s confessions, then understand that Christ was by Himself his Power, his audacity and his intrepidity in the heart of the apostle.

I am writing of all this to you, for Lord filled my heart with Himself. Having looked at Him in the vision, I also had no fear of Death and Hell. Moreover – having caught the left hand of the Saviour firmly, I asked Him excitedly:

“Jesus! Do you really want to take Your servant to the depths of Hell and into the heart of the earth?”

Then Lord replied, as He said:

“For a servant, who My Father has raised most upwards, it is not a big thing to descend to the most downward places. But now I tell you that you are writing the visions in this book because of My brothers and sisters. For, they must strengthen their faith.

The faith, Stefan! That faith in the Son of Man, Who Father in Spirit of Power and Holiness appeared before us all, as God’s Son. Without this faith in Me, without the perfect confidence that you hold My hand and have already passed from Death to Life, you will not resist. The Will of My Father is that you all are not just victorious, but more than victorious over the devil. Did not My Apostle use such words, when he talked to your hearts?”

“Yes, he did, my Lord!” – I replied excitedly and went on:

“But what does it mean to be more than victorious?”

Lord smiled at my question and went on talking, as He said:

“This means through God’s Son to be triumphant over all the forces of the enemy! This means to believe and to know what your Lord really did in the dungeon, in order to ruin once and for all the entire forces of darkness and Evil. Then you will surely be more than victorious, for Lord lets you triumph obviously – dressed in His Life and witnessed of His Resurrection, For I am the Resurrection and Life! If anyone believes in Me, such one will live forever...”

After these sweet for my heart words, Jesus threw a look, too sharp, at me and then aimed His Sword at the very land, as He called out to it in a powerful Voice:

“Open!”

Having heard the authoritative command of Jesus, the land parted itself, and thus the earth just beneath the very Cross on Golgotha cracked and suddenly a powerful earthquake took place. Then a wide crack, whose end was disappearing in the depths of the darkness, appeared before my eyes. So, holding my hand firmly, Lord started descending with me into the very crack, so that my eyes lost the earth horizon, and I started staring downwards. It was not hard to watch at all, for the Spirit of Jesus shone as sun and the darkness in front of Him was running away. So, after going down for a while I noticed sharp and steaming rocks, which visibly sealed the area beyond them, just like a lid. It seemed, as if our descent had come to an end. But then Lord gave me a sign with His hand, as He said:

“Here that both Me and you have reached the very gates of Death and Hell. But now let us come closer to them, in order for you to see them clearly...”

After these words, Jesus brought me even closer to the gates of Death and Hell. So, my eyes noticed a large inscription on the gates, which was not written in any of the earthly languages, but rather in a specific demonic language, known only to the one, who understands it. The very letters of the inscription looked like lead-grey snakes, which were woven in each other, so that one snake-symbol was touching with its forked tongue another snake-symbol. This made me ask my Lord, saying:

“What is this inscription, Jesus? Who has written it and what is its meaning, for I do not understand it?”

“It is not possible for you to understand it! For, this inscription is the welcoming word of the ancient serpent, which is a devil and Satan. A word, through which he welcomes the souls of all the dead ones, who are submitted to him for a determined period of time. But now I will stretch My Sword to the very inscription, so that the Light of the Spirit translates for you the written word, according to its meaning and message..."

So, Lord aimed His Sword at the inscription, and then the snake-letters hissed, as if they were alive. As they wrinkled from the blade of the Sword, they sagged and sang. The Light of the Spirit was already translating, what Satan had written, into my native language:

"If you enter the darkness gates – instead of good, only evil awaits.
To always be the serpent's son is why you are here underground,
As you give me your heart, while you live –
an eternal share from me, you receive.
Your very last reward is that – to be a captive of Hell and Death..."

The verses were loaded simultaneously with such explicitness and hopelessness that I turned my eyes away to Jesus, as I told Him:

"Jesus! Despite being written by the devil, this inscription seems very plausible. It reminds me of the hell, described by Dante Alighieri, of whom I read in my youth. Till the very present day, I remember a verse from that book, which showed the inscription before the gates of Hell:

"Abandon hope, all ye who enter here..."

Having heard my words, Lord was saying again:

"The poet from Florence really had some inspiration in order to write his verses. However, he has neither said, nor seen it all. But now you will surely see it..."

Here that Jesus aimed the Sword against the gates of Death and Hell, as He cried out in a Voice, too powerful and thunderous:

"I am the Resurrection and the Life! Open your gates, guardian of the dark dwelling-places!"

The words of Jesus were loaded with such might and power that the rocks, which had sealed the area above the gates, started crumbling and cracking, as their fragments fell away from me and the Lord, as they smoked fearfully and had a sharp scent of sulphur. While I was waiting for someone to open the heavy solid door, each about hundred meters high, contrary to my expectations nothing happened. This made Jesus stretch His Sword out and push one of the gates, whose moulded stone started burning from the Fire of the Lord. Then – in even more thunderous and fearful Voice, Lord cried out again:

“I am the Life and the Resurrection! Open your gates, Satan! Otherwise I will destroy them by Myself and will reduce your dwelling-places to ashes!”

This time the Breath of Jesus passed just like a hurricane through the rocks, as It pierced them like a razor and they fell, perfectly cut, beside us. The Fire from the Sword of the Lord blazed up before the doors like a frightening explosion...

This time the gates of Death and Hell reacted obediently to Lord’s Voice. The heavy and massive doors opened with roar. Behind them, creeping like a snake and bending black wings before his face, appeared the devil, as he said to Jesus:

“Heavenly King and Master! All that is mine – is Yours! You have created even us the unrighteous ones for Yourself! Take the keys of Death and Hell and do in my dwelling-places all that You find pleasant...”

Still creeping before the Lord, Satan gave Him the bundle with the keys with a trembling hand. When Jesus took it, He said with a fearful Voice:

“Be gone before Me, Satan! Hide in your hole and do not dare to come out until I finish My Deed in the heart of the earth. Do not come out, do not even move or do anything in these three days and nights, in which I rob your commands and powers. For I will reduce you to ashes with My Sword and finish you off with My Breath...”

Retreating in front of Jesus and not daring to open the wings before his face, Satan hid in the darkness and simply was no longer in my sight. Shaken in my heart as never before, I told my Lord in great excitement:

“Jesus! I see the devil, so pitiful, ruined and crushed for the very first time, as barely now do I realize that You are a Creator, and before You he is just an insignificant creation...”

“You will see more than this! For I tell you that Father submitted His entire Glory and Power in the hands of the Son. He has given Him to determine the fate of each family among the heavenly, earthly, and subterranean beings. So, if you have seen how Satan bowed before My Power and My Glory, then how much more will all the other powers, forces and commands bow before My Name?

Now take a look at the keys of Death and Hell, which the devil handed to your Lord. Do you know what does it mean that I have become the Key-keeper of the dungeon?"

"Jesus! Your words burn in my heart now, the words, which You pronounced to all of us in the Gospel, as You said:

"What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs. Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell..."

(Matthew 10:27-28)

Now, Lord, I see that You talk to me before the gates of the dungeon, so that I appear Your words as a daylight to Your entire Church. You have become the One, Who can destroy both soul and body in hell! You are the Saviour of the pure and humble ones, but You are also the Destroyer of the unrighteous ones..."

Lord smiled at my words and caressed my head with a hand, and then went on talking to me, as He said:

"Yes, it is so! Now, I want you to write down My words, as a testimony for all of My children:

I AM THE LORD OF EVERY BEING AND EVERY SPIRIT! A LORD OF THE RIGHTEOUS ONES AND A LORD OF THE UNRIGHTEOUS ONES!

THE RIGHTEOUS ONES KNOW ME AS LORD, WHILE THEY ARE ALIVE, AND THE UNRIGHTEOUS ONES WILL KNOW ME AS LORD LATER!

But now take a look at the keys in My hand and inspect them well. Does anything about them impress you?"

I looked at the right hand of the Lord, which had taken the Sword back into scabbard, and was already holding the keys of death and hell, hanging on a silver chain. Then I noticed that one of the keys seemed to be made of clay, and the other – iron. While I was opening my mouth, in order to speak to Jesus, He anticipated my question, as He asked:

“Which is the clay key? And which is the iron key?”

“Jesus! The clay key should be the key of Death, while the iron key – the key of Hell. As for Death, as the fate of Adam, Father warned him, as He said:

“...until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return...” (Genesis 3:19)

And the iron key should be the key for Hell, as the Hell is eviler than Death and corresponds to that burnt conscience, which hardens itself towards the Law of the lord and towards the Voice of God’s Holy Spirit. For, as iron and made of iron Your Word describes all the children of hell. The children of the “ironware oven” of the devil...”

“That is namely so, My boy. You have correctly seen, understood and comprehended what the keys in My hand say. But now I want you to understand one more thing. Something, which My Apostle Peter annunciated to you all in his message, as he said:

“For Christ died for sins once for the righteous and for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive by the Spirit, through whom also went and preached to the spirits in prison who disobeyed long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah...” (1 Peter 3:18-20)

What do you think? Why do I go and preach to the spirits in prison? Was it not, because where the Son preaches, there is Salvation?”

“Jesus! Your Word shows us that You appeared on earth, as the Son of Man, as late as four millennia after the original sin of Adam and Eve. These are forty centuries, in which people were bearing, living, and dying. These people did not have the wonderful and unique chance to know You, as a Saviour, Lord and God, for in their time Father had not reconciled the world with Himself through the Sacrifice of His Son. The souls of these people have remained captives – either of Death, or Hell. I do not know – You know. But to go in the heart of the earth at the moment of Your Death, is because Father shows His greatest Kindness and Mercy to the families and generations, which vanished from the face of the earth long times ago. For, even if they faced their earthly death, their souls cannot disappear. So, if You, Jesus, preached on earth, and Your Word did not return empty to Father, then with Your preaching to the spirits in the dungeon, Your Word will not return empty-handed. For, in many dead there is honour, righteousness, faithfulness, friendship, moral and dignity left..”

The smile on Lord’s Face told me that at this moment I was speaking to Jesus with His Spirit on my lips. As He stretched His Sword downwards to the dungeon, He told me again:

“I came out of Father’s Heart, which is the immeasurable height, to descend to the heart of the earth, which is the immeasurable depth. Now, I tell you that Apostle Paul wrote to all of you the following words on purpose:

“...(and for this we labour and strive), that we have put our hope in the living God, Who is the Saviour of all men, and especially of those who believe. Command and teach these things...” (1 Timothy 4:10-11)

Do you see how the apostle speaks of Me, saying that I am the Saviour of all men? Did all men hear the good word from Zion or only the ones, who were touched by the Spirit of the Gospel after My Resurrection? But, as He is the Saviour of all families of men, the Son of Man descended into the heart of the earth. So that the sign of prophet Jonah comes true in Spirit and Truth and He brings His Salvation, as a gift to the depths of the earth. And so I will realize what has been written:

“When he ascended on high, He led captives in his train and gave gifts to men.” (What does “he ascended” mean except that he also descended to the lower, earthly regions?” (Ephesians 4:8-9)

Do you have this faith, My people? Do you have the faith that the One, Who descended to the heart of the earth, is the very same One, Who ascended higher than all the heavens? Here I tell you that I dedicate My prophet to the most hidden of My Heart. So that I have people, who know Me as the Life and the Resurrection. As the One, Who took the keys of Death and Hell and robbed the forces of Evil. From now on there is nothing more to do, but to understand the secret in the sign of prophet Jonah and follow Me into the heart of the earth...”

3. THE SECRET IN THE SIGN OF PROPHET JONAH

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

I pray God that this book shines, as a lightning in the dark existence of many people. At this very moment the Fire of God's Fiery Love fills my heart out and burns it. For, in the Heart of the Saviour Jesus there is greater Mercy for those, who do not know Him, but are under the power of Satan. What makes the Mercy of the Lord boundless is the fact that His Saving descent to the heart of the earth was a one-time deed, which was never again to take place after His Resurrection from the dead. For after this Resurrection all the living people on earth already have the testimony of the Blessed Word. Thus, regardless of whether they accept it or reject it, the people make their fateful step. To believe in Jesus and to pass from Death to Life, or to reject the Gospel and determine the fate of their souls in the kingdom of eternal horror and darkness. In fact – the words of my Lord stand written in the Gospel till the very present day, so that they are the most serious and fateful warning to mankind. Words, which Jesus pronounced:

“A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth...” (Matthew 12:39-49)

I want you to carefully notice that these words of the Lord were directed to those evil and disobedient people, who did not want to open their hearts and accept that Jesus is Christ. But let me go on with my thoughts, so that you may understand me. The Saviour says that they will not be given any other sign, but the sign of prophet Jonah. But what does it mean to receive the vision itself? This is what! All the abusers of the Son of Man, who heard His words at that time, sooner or later were going to die and go to their father, the devil, in the depths of Hell. Then they would be horrified to understand that the Jesus that they abused, while they lived, descended to the heart of the earth and preached to the spirits in prison. Then the very same traducers and unrighteous men that have remained forever out of God would surely ask the question:

“Did not Christ promise that He would give us the sign of prophet Jonah? What awaits us from now on, if we did not believe in Him in our lifetimes, in order to understand about His sign later in prison?”

Let me tell you, my brother, that the more insignificant and small Satan is before the Power and Glory of the Lord, the more powerful, fearful and horrible he is to those, who the Key-keeper Jesus gave up to him for eternity. As the unrighteous and adulterous generation that chased Lord from city to city, in order to smash the heads of His witnesses, will really receive the complete sign of prophet Jonah. For, it will understand about the Salvation as late as when it steps over the gates of condemnation. This is terrible! So terrible that one should abandon the wrong ways, think well and catch the hand of the Saviour firmly, in order to pass from Death to Life.

Having all these thoughts in my heart, I stood next to my Lord before the opened gates of Hell and Death. So, He started talking to me again, as He said:

“The heart of the earth, to which I will lead you now, is not just the deepest and most far away from God place. No! The heart of the earth is a common spirit! A spirit of beings and disciples, which always wanted to have paths and thoughts, different than God’s Will and adverse to God’s Heart. For, if My Father is a Spirit and the Heart of Father gathers in Heaven all that is bright, pure, wonderful and holy, then in the heart of the earth is stored all that is blasphemous and dirty, unrighteous and repulsive. Just as you correctly noticed, the Hell is eviler than Death and is therefore more downward than it. That is why, the start of My three days begins not from the top downward but from the bottom upwards. In other words – from the heart of the earth and from the depths of the very Hell to the shady places of Death. Now, when you recall everything from “Jonah”, tell Me: Where did My Father send His prophet to preach repentance?”

“Jesus! Father send Jonah in the bog city Nineveh, as the unrighteousness of its inhabitants had stirred His entire anger. But Jonah was afraid of God’s order and ran away from the Face of God, as he went aboard a ship, headed for Tarshish...”

Lord smiled at my answer and kept on asking me, as He said:

“Was the Son scared by the Will of the Father? Did He run away from His Face just like Jonah?”

“No, Lord! There is a difference here between You and Jonah!”

“That is namely so, My boy, but the difference ends exactly here, in order for all the resemblances to begin. Now tell Me again what happened, when My Father commanded the fish and it vomited Jonah onto dry land?”

“Jesus! Jonah stood up and started preaching repentance to all the inhabitants of Nineveh, as he called out:

“Forty more days and Nineveh will be overturned...” (Jonah 3:4)

“Did the prophet pass through the whole city Nineveh easily? How many days did it take him to finish the deed entrusted to him by Lord?”

“My Lord! The Word says that:

“...Now Nineveh was a very important city – a visit required three days...” (Jonah 3:3)

“Then see that the prison before us is also too big. Its visit will also require three days. But now think over the secret of the three days and nights. Why not two or four, but namely three? Then what do My words mean, when they say that the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights?”

The question of Jesus made me fall silent and be unable to answer Him. He waited and waited patiently, and yet I found no answer at all. Therefore I spoke to the Lord at last, as I said:

“I do not know Jesus! If you do not give me the answer, I will never find it...”

At this moment the Saviour had mercy on my feeble mind and talked to me again, as He said:

“Take another look at the sign of prophet Jonah, for there lies the answer. Take a look and understand what the outcome of the prophetic call in Nineveh was...”

“Lord! The call of prophet Jonah lead the inhabitants of Nineveh to fast and repentance. This made Father turn away from His anger and keep His hand from destroying Nineveh...”

“Where did the command for the complete repentance of all the citizens in Nineveh come from? Who was the first to give the example and use his entire influence, power and authority to make all of Nineveh stand in fast and repentance before God and Father?”

“Jesus! The call of prophet Jonah reached the king of Nineveh. As he took off his royal robes and covered himself with sackcloth and dust, he commanded that all of Nineveh repents...”

“Then take a look at the words of the king of Nineveh, My boy. For in them lies the key for the three days and nights of the Son of Man in the heart of the earth...”

I looked at “Jonah” and then I noticed the explicit command of the king:

“Do not let any man or beast, herd or flock, taste anything; do not let them eat or drink. But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth. Let everyone call urgently on God. Let them give up their evil ways and their violence. Who knows? God may yet relent and with compassion turn from his fierce anger so that we will not perish...” (Jonah 3:7-9)

Despite reading the words of the kings, I still could not understand. Then Jesus asked me again:

“Who were those concerned by the proclamation of the fast in Nineveh?”

“My Lord! The Fast concerned the king and his nobles, the people and the beasts, so that the king and his nobles, as well as the people and the beasts do not eat or drink anything, but be covered with sackcloth and call urgently on God...”

“Do not you see here three generations, called to repentance? Is not the first generation, the one of the kings and his nobles, the second – the generation of all the people, and lastly the third – the generation of the animals? Now do you understand why the Son of Man had to stay in the dungeon three days and three nights?”

Could I possibly not understand it, now, when such Light was shining in the words of Jesus? Of course that no! This is why I said excitedly to my Lord:

“Jesus! Now I understand that You will preach to the spirits in the dungeon three days and three nights, because some of them are like kings and nobles, others – like people, and third – like beasts...”

“That is namely so! You really comprehended the secret of the three days and nights. But now look at the other prophetic secret. It is that in the sign of the Son of Man fit both Jonah’s stay in the interior of the great fish, (which was three days and nights) and Jonah’s preaching in Nineveh (which was also three days and three nights). This is so as in the sign of Jonah the monster and Nineveh were separated, while in the sign of the Son of Man the monster has swallowed Nineveh. Thus, just as Father ordered the sea monster to vomit Jonah onto dry land, so will the Son of Man leave the heart of the earth after His three days and nights, bringing Him a gift from the Salvation, which touched the ancient families.

Now that you know which the three generations are: the kings, the people and the beasts; follow Me into the very heart of the earth, as the first of My three days will start from the bottom upwards...”

4. THE FIRST DAY OF JESUS IN THE PRISON

My brother! My faithful friend!

I want you to liberate your mind from any idea that Lord Jesus is going to descend to the heart of the earth, in order to preach the good word to dead wolves, foxes, jackals, hyenas or lions. It is true that in the proclamation of the king of Nineveh it was explicitly mentioned that no man or beast should eat or drink anything, but should call out and cry to God, in order to turn Him away from His bitter anger. But have the reason to understand that even if a man can call out and cry to God, a beast cannot do that. The very lack of reason in the animal is sufficient evidence that it will not obey the prophet's calling and the royal command.

Then what do the beasts in Hell represent? Why has their lawlessness placed them in the very heart of the earth, just as Jesus warned me about this? The truth is that the beasts in hell are not just animals, but the souls of men, who during their life on earth were deprived of common sense and were fearful violators and offenders of God's Law. Does the Word of God give us information about these beasts? Of course, it does. If one opens "The second message of Apostle Peter" they will read the explicit words of the prophet, who speaks exactly of these animals, which Lord will show to us all in the heart of the earth. This is what is written about them:

"They are like brute beasts, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like beasts they too will perish. They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. Their idea of pleasure is to carouse in broad daylight. They are blots and blemishes, revelling in their pleasures while they feast with you. With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce the unstable; they are experts in greed – an accursed brood! They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness. But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey – a beast without speech – who spoke with a man's voice and restrained the prophet's madness. These men are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them (for ever)..." (2 Peter 2:12-17)

Do you see how accurately the apostle warned us that these animals are beasts, for which the blackest darkness is reserved? Do you see that such ones have left the straight way and wandered off, as they loved the wages of wickedness? Now think soberly that in the heart of the earth, where Christ went at the moment of His Death, no festive chandeliers shine, but everything is in the grip of gloomy darkness for eternity. This should convince you that, if one has turned into a beast to God's look, then such one has lost everything humane, and therefore no longer has God's Image and resemblance, but has likened and depicted himself completely to the image and resemblance of the ancient serpent, which is a devil and Satan. Thus you surely understand that for the souls of those, who have turned into beasts, the blackest depths of Hell are reserved.

But now let my contemplations give way to my personal leadership from Jesus and the vision, He revealed before my eyes. As I was still standing with Him before the opened gates of Death and Hell, when Jesus caught me firmly with His hand and stretched His Sword in the other one, as He was telling me:

"Now you will see your Lord, as a Lightning, which will pass through the darkness of the gloomy dimensions, in order to reach the very heart of the earth, where to begin His mission..."

After these words of Jesus, the Sword in His right hand lightened as it shot a huge lightning, which passed through all Death and Hell for only a fraction of a second, as it illuminated everything around it. Then me and Jesus flew in the very Light of the lightning. It was so quick and instant that my eyes did not manage to see or notice anything beside us. So, Lord had already taken me to the heart of the earth. While me and Him were stepping on a narrow stone path, beside my eyes and ears the entire possible horror and curse, which I could neither imagine, nor bring to my mind, came to live. As there in the heart of the earth, I was observing the souls of thousands of sinners and unrighteous people, bound firmly in iron chains, which blazed with inextinguishable flame. They screamed and roared with beastly voices, as I could not sense anything humane in their groans. But while I was still trying to recover my breath from the horror of the very place, Lord held my hand powerfully and pointed with His Sword ahead, as He told me:

“Take a look at the bottom in the heart of the earth. As from this bottom originates all the horror and damnation...”

I looked at the very bottom and then my eyes saw a man and a woman that were tied up together and that had buried their heads in their bosoms. They were namely the ones, who stood at the bottom, and a black rope, similar to a spirit, came out of their hearts and entered the hearts of the sinners after them. This made me ask Jesus:

“My Lord! Who are these two people? Why are they at the bottom, as if all the horror and damnation come from them?”

“That is because it is namely so” – answered Lord and went on:

“This man and this woman are Adam and Eve. It was exactly from their hearts that the Death passed on to all the people. Do not you see the very Death?”

“Yes, Jesus! I see it as a black rope, braided from the threads in the hearts of Adam and Eve. This black rope comes out of them and passed through their descendants...”

“Take a look then at the first one from the generation of Adam and Eve. How does he look to you in his eyes?”

I looked at the first one after Adam and Eve. Then my eyes saw not a man, but a wolf. His eyes were wolf’s. His teeth were wolf’s. His howl was wolf’s. His entire radiation was wolf’s. As I turned my horrified eyes away, I told Jesus:

“My Lord! This is Cain, who killed his brother Abel in the field. Then other descendants follow, and they are also beast in their hearts. For I see foxes and hyenas, jackals and leopards, tigers and lions...”

As Lord listened to my words, He spoke again, as He said:

“Now that I am in the heart of the earth, I will raise My Voice amidst these beasts and will preach to them the good word of the Kingdom. As I stretch My hand out to the lightning of Lord’s Sword. I will draw bright threads of Salvation from it, in order to give them to these beasts, so that they may abandon the devilish chains of the beastlike and desire the Image of the Future One, from Whom they have retreated.

Now listen to My words, which I spoke to these first fallen generations, which turned into beasts..."

Here that Jesus really stretched His hand and His fingers started pulling shiny threads of Salvation out of the very lightning of the Spirit. Then the Saviour spoke to all of the dead ones, as He said:

"I am Lord and God, from Whom Adam and Eve retreated. I am your Creator, from Whose Life your sins separated you. I came to earth at the ends of time. Just as I appeared the Salvation in the land of the living, so I am displaying it before you, the dead. Stretch your hands to the threads of Eternal Light and Salvation and summon My Name, in order for me to save you. For, I am Jesus Christ, the Life and the Resurrection!"

Here that Jesus took two of the threads and approached the tied Adam and Eve, as He stretched His Light to them. But then the first people, who did not want to turn their heads to Him, picked up fig leaves, with which they were hiding their faces. So, they refused to look at the Light and accept it. The other generations and families, all in their beastlike passion, started roaring fiercely and jangling their chains, as they wanted to neither hear, nor accept the good word of Jesus. So, Lord looked at me sharply, as He said:

"Here, you try too, so that you see that beasts will always remain beasts. Take one of the bright threads in My hand and approach Cain, in order to turn him away from his wolf's instincts..."

I took the bright thread of Lord's Salvation excitedly, as I approached the wolf, tied with a chain, just next to Adam and Eve. As I stretched the thread of God's Light, I told him:

"Cain, wake up from your wolf's dream! The Lord, Who once asked you why your heart is darkened, has come today to illuminate your face. You have only one moment, Cain! Do not reject it! Do not miss it! Desire the Light of the Lord!"

Having heard my words, the wolf suddenly jumped and tautened his chains, as he showed his teeth so frightfully that I jumped back in surprise, as I told Jesus:

"My God, this Cain is just like a wolf, who is ready to tear the hand that wants to save him. He has not only kept his malice against God, but still gathers it in his heart..."

In reply Lord answered to me, as he said:

"Now do you understand that the wolf will remain a wolf and all the beast will remain beasts? The first Adam and Eve will always remain here, in the heart of the earth. For, they raised the fig leaves to hide their sins from God once again.

So, if you see in this vision the ancient beasts from the time of Noah, just imagine how many evil beasts fill out the heart of the earth in the last days, that is, in the years before My coming. But to give a testimony to My entire Church, I will show another vision before your eyes. A vision with the last beasts, which jammed the hell and filled it up. Therefore watch! Observe and do not miss anything of what you will see..."

After these words, Lord swung His Sword and thus the sight before my eyes changed instantly. This time I saw how the heart of the earth had grown enormous, as there were gigantic heaps of billions of sinners and unrighteous people. Similar to the first vision, these were once again wolves, foxes, jackals, hyenas, lions and tigers. Bound with the chains of condemnation and set ablaze in a terrible fire, they roared fearfully and deafeningly, and abuses, shrieks and curses rose in the very space. Then the index finger of Jesus pointed some of them, as He told me:

"Go to the wolves. As you pay attention and do not approach them a lot, in order not to be torn apart, ask them why are they in this darkness and terror..."

Having listened to the Lord, I stepped towards the wolves carefully, as I asked them:

"Why are you in hell, wolf people? Why cannot you look my Lord in the eyes?"

In reply a few of the wolves roared beastly, as they told me:

"Ask Him why we are here! For not we, but He did not keep His Testament. How many sheep had we grazed? How many people have we turned to the Bosom of the Church, and yet He found us unfaithful? Us, the great leaders of His Flock! Us, the blossom of the church aristocracy! Us, the great anointed people, who are now just nothing! How are we supposed to forget the evil, through which He paid us back? Lord, Who Said by Himself that the worker deserves his salary, found us sinful for getting salaries! Lord, Who claimed by Himself that we should increase His talents, found us guilty for not only increasing tenfold, but hundredfold His goods!”

Their words made me ask the jealously:

“Was it Lord that did not keep His Testament or you? Did you graze His sheep for Him or for your own well-being and prosperity? Were you supposed to be great shepherds or were you supposed to exalt Him and the Great and Only One Shepherd to His Flock? Were you supposed to work for an earthly salary to your Master or for the prize of Eternal Life? Were you supposed to increase His talents in the soil of selfishness or in the Light and Love of the Holy Spirit?”

My words made the wolves jump, just like Cain, and show their teeth to me fearfully, saying:

“Stay away from us, for we will tear you apart at once...”

Having heard the roar of the wolves, the foxes joined it, as they told me:

“How you, as someone not doctrinal found yourself in the Light of the Lord? How you, illiterate and uneducated, add grief to our chains and are found anointed before Him? Jesus has really turned His Testament into a testament of fools and stupid men, and abandoned us – the wise and all-knowing ones, in an unbecoming for Him way...”

These fox’s words made my jealousy blaze up again, as having turned to their cunning faces, I was already telling them:

“Did not God choose the stupid and the simple ones, in order to make the wise ones ashamed? Did not God caught you in your cunningness, in order to punish you at your end? Did not you, who tempted with ranks, titles, diplomas and church careers, deceive yourselves? Did not you deprive the Cross of Jesus Christ from the cleanliness and purity, which you owed to Jesus? You really are beasts – alien to the Image of God, alien to the life of God, alien to the entire Heaven and all of its inhabitants. That is why I thank God and tell Him:

"Be blessed, Jesus! For, giving the wolves a share of Your Anger! For, destroying the false feather of the foxes and for binding a stone on the necks of the tempter, in order for all of them to sink into this dark depth..."

I do not know if I pronounced or cried my words out quite powerfully, but the very next moment the entire space in the heart of the earth went visibly mad. Lord, as he swung His Sword, ceased the vision, as He said:

"This was the very heart of the earth! This is how the first one of the days of the Son of Man ended. A day, in which the animals remained animals and did not find a place for change in their hearts, for Father deprived them of Reason, to recognize the True Saviour and the True Salvation.

All those, who belong to Me and want to listen and obey My Voice, I strictly command:

Stop being tempted by the prosperity and career of the wolves and foxes, jackals and hyenas, lions and tigers. For they all are violators of the devil and are deprived of Reason, but are great to violate My Flock. All of them are merchants and criminals, who explicitly sold their souls to the devil. That is why they will not only be dead, but will be bound with the iron chains of Hell. Here, the Death hurries to pass through them all, and the Hell has already opened its mouth to engulf them. Thus they will all one day be found in the heart of the earth; tied in eternal bonds for the Judgement of the great Day. There will be no God's Mercy and god's forgiveness for them for eternity. For, they have despised the repentance and have come to hate Lord's teaching. You, servant of the Lord, follow Me again into the second of days of the Son of Man. For I will give you a vision about the people in temptation and seduction..."

5. THE SECOND DAY OF JESUS IN THE PRISON

My dear brother! My faithful friend!

Do not let your heart fall away due to the previous vision, despite its frightfulness. For, today it is much better for us to be startled and agitated about the end of the many, than to live in the candied illusion of the devil that there is no end to wickedness.

The truth is that we have the fate from God to be born in the time of increased wickedness. A time, when people call unanimously the good - evil, and the evil - good. A time, when thousands of thousands compete in bowing to the devil, in their desire to get a share of this world, which Satan gives to his most eager followers. Nobody wishes to understand that there is a price to be paid for everything. Only few realize that this cunning and cruel ruler of this world does not grant prosperity and well-being just like that, but only when one signs in his heart that they deny the Blood of Jesus and accept the devil as god and master. That is why today the Hell is not only full, but overcrowded with people, who never thought of the price and their end. I was internally prepared by my Lord that at the very bottom in the heart of the earth I will see the most evil people possible. It was really so. That is why in the first of His days in the heart of the earth, Jesus did not touch or save anybody. As the very souls of the people, tied in iron chains and deprived of Reason, refused to know Him, recognize Him and summon Him. But this was not the end of the visions of Jesus. For, He touched me with His hand, as He said:

“Do not let your heart fall away, just as My Heart has not fallen away. For at the beginning of My dedication to you, I said that I would start from the bottom upwards. Thus, firstly you have seen the beasts in hell, that is the souls, which have lost all that is humane and are bound in eternal bonds for the Judgement of the great day. But here that Me and you will climb up the path. So that you may see some other souls, of which there will be many, who will summon Me...”

After these words Lord held my hand firmly and went up the narrow stone path in the heart of the earth. So, He walked on for a while, without speaking to me, and I followed Him. Thus the shrieks and roars of the beasts from the bottom of Hell gradually died away. Other sinners and unrighteous people appeared beside my eyes. What was typical for most of them was the fact that their clothes were too dirty and desecrated. Unlike the previous one, these souls did not roar and shriek, but rather moaned and cried in their pains. Then came a moment, when Jesus stopped. As He raised His hand and pointed the sinners, He was already telling me:

“Take a good look at them! For, namely these are the people, for whom God’s patiently waited in the days of Noah. They are the ones, who went round lewdly, as they covered their souls with stains and their hearts with disgrace. What do you think of them, as you look at all of their wretchedness and tragedy?”

“Jesus! As I look at these men I see them as victims of the devil, rather than his dedicated servants and executors. This is why I feel pity for these people...”

“Then take another look and see that amidst the rocks beside them, there are others, who are chained with iron chains to the very stone, and their feet burn in flames. How do you explain this? Why is this difference in the suffering of the ones and the others? Why the ones with the dirty clothes simply moan and cry due to the darkness and hopelessness, while the ones tied with chains grind their teeth due to the fire in their feet...”

“Jesus! It is obvious that there is some explicit difference between the one and the other people, even though they share the very same place, which is Hell. But how do the ones, tied up in iron chains, differ from the ones in dirty clothes?”

In reply my Lord took the keys of Death and Hell out of His mantle. As He raised them before my face, He spoke to me, as He said:

“Take the key of Death and approach anyone of the sinners with the dirty clothes, as you touch his heart with the very key. So, you will surely understand his sin...”

I took excitedly the clay key of Death from the hand of Jesus and approached one sufferer. Thus I touched his heart with the key of Death, and then a vision appeared from his very heart. In this very vision I saw the sufferer during his life on earth. He had grabbed a bared lewd woman with one hand, and threw a pouch of coins with the other to the master of the lewd woman, that is, her procurer, as he said to them:

"You are offering beautiful flesh, master! Pay you to sate with it..."

Then the man assaulted the lewd woman before the grinned look of the procurer, who caught his pouch with a dexterous movement of his hand. As he slipped it into his bosom, the procurer cried out again:

"Here, Here! Fresh Flesh, real pleasure! Almost free!"

At this moment the vision from the heart of this person ceased, and Lord pointed it again, as He asked me:

"What did you understand from the vision?"

"Jesus! I understood that this man was tempted, in order to desire the lewd woman and paid her procurer, in order to couple with her..."

"Then, who is the tempter and the seducer? The lewd woman, which sold her body or the procurer, who forced her to practice the lechery?"

"My Lord! Of course that the procurer is the tempter and seducer..."

"Then take a look at that man, who is bound with iron chains, and whose feet blaze in flames. As you take from Me the iron key of Hell, touch his heart, in order to understand the reason for his end..."

As I returned to Jesus the clay key of Death, I took the iron key of Hell from Him. Then, as I approached the one, tied up in the iron chains, who moaned and grinded his teeth, due to the unbearable pain, I touched his heart with the key. Then a vision appeared again from the heart of the man, and I saw in it his life on earth. Here that my heart sank within me from the vision. As the man in it fought with fists the woman, who had fallen in his feet, as he screamed at her:

"You are my property and I will kill you, if you do not give your body to anyone, who desires you. I gave money for you and you will make money for me, dirty bitch!"

As she sobbed from the heavy strikes on her head, the woman moaned out in horror:

"Fine, fine! I will sleep with anyone you desire and will dedicate myself completely to him, just do not fight me and do not kill me!"

This time the vision ceased, too, and I, filled out with repulsion and disgust from the deed of the man, I turned to the Lord, as I told Him:

"My God! This procurer has been completely evil on earth. He violated slave-women, to make them fornicate with his customers, and so win money, too rascal and damned..."

In reply Lord asked me with a firm voice, as He said:

"Do you understand, now, what is the difference between the people with the dirty clothes and the ones, chained and given up to fire? The difference is that the first are tempted, while the others are tempters. The first are seduced, while the others are seducers. The ones are devil's victims, while the others are executioners. But that is why I descended to the heart of the earth – to summon the sinful to repentance and cleanse their souls..."

After these words, Jesus stretched His Sword to the multitudes of many thousands, and the lightning of the Holy Spirit shone too powerfully and illuminated the sharp and fearful rocks. Here that Lord took in His right hand threads of Light from the very lightning. As He stretched them towards the sinful ones, He told them:

"I am Lord and God Jesus Christ! The Life and the Resurrection! Come close to Me all of you, who have tears to cry and hearts to regret bitterly for what you did in your lives on earth. Give Me your tears in My left hand and take Salvation from My right hand..."

Having seen the bright Light of the Spirit and having heard the call of the Lord, thousands of souls rushed towards Him. As they cried and did not dare to look at Him, because of their dirty rags, they were telling Him:

"We are sinful, Saviour! Why have You abandoned Your Holy place and have come here among us? Has the God on heavens really shown Mercy to us?"

In reply, Jesus spoke to them again, as He said:

"My Father is God and Lord of every being. So, if He showed Mercy to the sinful on earth, through His Son, He now shows it to the sinful beneath the earth. So that both dead and living can hear the Good Word of the Heavenly Kingdom. Therefore, come closer and give Me your tears, and I will give you My rays..."

My brother! I observed, as if in a dream the miracle in the heart of the earth. For, there at my Lord knelt thousands of people, who poured their tears in His hands, and He instantly cleansed their clothes. But not everyone approached Jesus. For, people remained that had hardened hearts and dry eyes. People remained that were also tied in the iron chains of Hell and born in their very hearts by the ancient serpent. So, in the very vision, Jesus approached me, as He said:

“These souls, whose tears the Son gathered in His bosom and to whom He gave His rays, will follow Me to My very Resurrection. For, I robbed Hell at this moment and deprived the devil of all, who do not belong to him. But, now I want to give to My people one more thing in another vision. For I will show to your heart the very same place, but in the last months and years before My coming. For the Son descended to the heart of the earth only once and He was never again to make another Saving descent. Therefore, watch!”

After His last words, Lord swung His Sword and thus a new vision was revealed to my eyes. This time my eyes were observing unending horror that was hard to describe. There was not a single empty place on the rocks, which had no sinners and unrighteous people chained to it. The very rocks, blazing in fierce fires brought the unrighteous ones to beastly shrieks. Yet, this time, the ones with the dirty clothes visibly shared the fate of the chained ones. As beside each chained person, there were ten, twenty or even hundred people, tied in a common chain with them. This amazed me at first, and then disturbed me. Not knowing what to say to the Lord, I asked Him, as I said:

“What are you letting me see, Jesus? Why, unlike the ancient ones, these last people share in a common chain the chains and the suffering of their tempter?”

In reply Jesus talked to me, as He said:

“Do you remember My words in the Gospel, when I said to you all:

“As for the person who hears My words but does not keep them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save it. There is a judge for the one who rejects Me and does not accept My words; that very word which I spoke will condemn him at the last day...” (John 12:47-48)

What was the Word, which I said to you about temptations? Did not I warn you all with the words:

“Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to sin! Such things must come, but woe to the man through whom they come! If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire. And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell...” (Matthew 18:7-9)

Now do you understand that if the ancient one did not know the Word and were spiritually blind, the last generation knew by heart whole passages from Lord’s Testament, yet they did not wish to keep My Word. That is why the common chain for the tempters and the tempted ones, is the condemning fate of My Word.

But for testimony to My entire Church, I command you now to come closer and hear what the shrieks of the tempted ones are to their tempter...”

With a sinking heart I approached one of the rocks, where there was a tempter tied up together with about a hundred tempted ones, who shared a common chain under him and screamed, due to the flames rising above the rock. In their screams I recognized words, through which the tempted ones told their tempter:

“Why did you deceive us to have faith in you? Why did you mislead us to follow you? Why did you inspire our hearts, so that we hate God’s messengers and store condemnation? You wicked man you! You made us detestable to the Lord and evil before His eyes for eternity!”

As he listened to their screams, the tempter turned madly his head left and right. As he tried in vain to pull his feet from the chain, he shouted to the tempted ones beneath him, as he told them:

“Why do you shout against me, damned ones? Do not you know that I was following the instructions and the orders of the wolves and the lions, which are down below! Stop screaming at me! Stop this terror in my ears, for we will stand chained here till the very end and till the Judgement Day of Christ...”

But the tempted ones shouted at him again:

"If it was not for your fear that someone would take your pulpit and darken your authority, we would still stand to this hour in peace with God. But you deceived us with accursed delusion. You filled our hearts with silver pieces, our hands with trade, our eyes with conferences, our souls with theology. Thus, you made us hate the ones, who gave freely, and exalt merchants and criminals. Where are they now to take us away from horror and fire? Where is their anointment and glory now? Where is their personal leadership from the Lord? Why did you deceive us, you dirty devilish son?"

To these words, the one chained above them hit back, as he shouted at them:

"Why did you agree to be deceived? Did not you enjoy being graduates? Did not you visit each conference enthusiastically? Did not you giggle and fall on your backs before I even touched you. Curse yourselves, damned ones! Curse your own repulsive hearts!"

I observed with my eyes and listened with my ears to the most terrible tragedy of the tempted souls. Then with a crying heart I turned to Jesus, as I told Him:

"My Lord! I cannot bear this vision! Now I wish to never become an obstacle or temptation for any church or any believing heart. Just to think that the end of the many, who explicitly rejected Your words in all the visions, You gave to me, can be seen namely here..."

In reply to my words Lord caressed me with His hand, as He said:

"You will never become an obstacle or temptation to a heart that sincerely believes in God. The prophetic word, which was given to you from Heaven, will surely tempt and trip all the proud and vainglorious churches that have turned My Testament into prosperity, theology and trade. As when such ones are tempted, they are tempted by Me. They have done this due to the spirit of the devilish temptation, which rules them. The temptation to want a share from both worlds. The temptation to want from the devil, but to confess God's Name. Through such confession each heart is tied up with the chain of the terrible condemnation and cannot avoid its end. But I speak once more and strictly warn all God's children:

Step away from any temptation and cleanse your heart from any unrighteousness. May reproach, rage, insult or curse run far away from your mouths. As the Son of Man has claimed against the tempters, as well as against the tempted ones, against the seducers, as well as against the seduced ones. I have warned all of you that an insult to Father and Son will be forgiven to the people, but an insult against God's Prophetic Spirit and against the prophets, sent to you, will not be forgiven in this world, as well as in the future one. That is why become aware of what word you hold in your hearts. So that what you consider Truth, is not by any chance the deadly chain of satanic temptation.

Here, I have let My servant see the second of My days in the prison. A day, in which the Son of Man preaches repentance to the spirits in the prison and robs Hell, as He prepares gifts of Salvation for His Glory before Father of the heights. You, Stefan, follow Me now into My third and last day in the heart of the earth. A day, in which I will show to you the meeting of the King with the kings..."

6. THE THIRD DAY OF JESUS IN THE PRISON

My brother! My faithful friend!

Do you know when a person is ready to change his heart according to God's Perfect Will? This is when they are really scared by God's just fates. For, then, having fallen on his eyes and knees before the Lord, he would expose his back and cry out:

"Scourge me, my Lord! Do it, so that my heart shakes with grief, and the tears on my eyes never dry up from morning to evening. For, You scourge the son that You accept and this is Your True and Holy outcome in the lives of the ones, who You have come to love forever!"

But does everyone want to be scourged by Lord? Is everyone today ready to sit down and cover themselves with sackcloth and do not eat bread or drink water for three days, but cry and call out to God, in order to turn Him away from His furious anger, just like the Ninevites? In fact, the contemporary last generation is much eviler than the one, which wanted omens from Jesus. The truth is that the contemporary people prefer to giggle and snicker, as well as to fall on their backs at their conferences, as thus they will experience a feast during a plague.

A feast during a plague!

Think over these words, my brother! For, the plague of the last Babylon hurls down lethally multitudes. Such ones, as they are blind and cannot see the dark stains of infection on their chests, are ready to feast with the church ruling crust, without considering that in the dungeon they will not be able to pay off the sprinkled Blood of the Testament, which they treaded and abused.

I have shouted and written enough to make even the deafest ones hear and the blindest ones see. But the proud member of the church, who goes to church in Wednesday and Sunday and who has invested an entire fortune into his theology diploma, wishes to hear of neither prophetic word, nor repentance and humbleness. Such ones are righteous in their own eyes and have their own point of view (understand doctrine) for each page from "Genesis" to "Revelation". But how will they explain what Jesus did in the heart of the earth through their doctrinal views? How could they get close to Christ's Death on the Cross, when they are not ready to get even a scratch for the Lord? The truth is that everyone, who stands in front of the Cross, but does not cross it, always remains a spectator of what is visible and earthly. They will read all the Gospels, but will remain the very same old and natural people. They will cite enthusiastically entire passages from the messages of Apostle James, Peter, John, Jude and Paul, but their verses will always be copper that jangles and a cymbal that rings. They will go on reading the concordances of Strong and Bankov, or the reference notes beneath their bibles, but still they will look exactly like builders that have not placed a single stone over the base of their spiritual home. And when the rain starts, the rivers swell and the winds blow, then such ones will be carried off and away, just like the thousands before them. For, even though they were believers, they were not faithful ones. For, they were explorers, instead of followers.

Because, never in their lives have they paid the price to be kings of Lord Jesus Christ!

These initial words before the vision, which Jesus revealed before my eyes, were necessary. For, in this vision the most hidden words, which the Saviour pronounced in the Gospel, came alive before me; the words about the queen of the South and the men of Nineveh, or in other words, the ones, who will appear before Christ's Court, in order to condemn the generation of Babylon and all the unrighteous people.

Let me reveal before you the very vision, which I had from the Lord. I was still standing with Him in the heart of the earth, when He smiled and pointed upwards, as He told me:

"Now let us go to the uppermost places in the heart of the earth. There, where the power of Hell is not present, and only Death is present. For, you are to see things that will truly amaze and surprise you..."

After these words Lord went upward, and I followed Him. Here that the more we walked, the more the Hell moved away from my heart and I was no longer hearing the moans and the shrieks of the condemned ones. So, after walking for a while, my eyes saw pale lights in the distance of the dark. This surprised me, and I pointed them to Jesus, as I asked Him:

"What are these lights that glimmer in the distance, Lord?"

“These are the hearts of the ancient kings. The hearts of the ones, in whom honour and dignity, faithfulness and valour remained. So, if you really want to understand everything completely, then I tell you that these are the hearts, for which your Lord called Himself King of kings and Lord of lords. You remember from the sign of prophet Jonah that after the people and the beasts come the very kings, do not you?”

“Yes, Jesus! I remember this and it is most wondrous for me. But, who are the ones we will see in the distance, Lord?”

“Have patience, My boy, and just follow Me! For, in just a while you will understand everything...”

I was once again following Jesus, as I could not restrain the excitement of my heart. Here that the lights were already becoming hearts. The hearts illuminated the faces of men, who seemed quite different from the previous inhabitants of the heart of the earth. For, over them there were signs of nobleness, which was not lost. So, a moment came, when Lord stopped. As He stretched His Sword over thousands of souls, He made the lightning of the Spirit illuminate and light them up. Then, in an excited Voice, Jesus called out to the souls, as He said:

“Ancient kings from the centuries!

I see amidst you Pharaoh, who raised Joseph! I see amidst you Darius and Cyrus! I see amidst you the queen of Sheba and the king of Nineveh! I see among you people, who died with honour and dignity, valour and courage! Finally, I see the royal command, “Love your neighbour”, which you have kept till the time, in which I visit you. I was the invisible King in your lives, Who placed in your hearts the Law, which is not altered! I was the One, Who let you love Israel and do the Will of My Father, Who you did not know, but Who you served! Here, the King summons His kings, and the Mighty One from Zion collects His ancient gold of Ophir!”

The words of Jesus were so captivating and Holy that thousands of noble people gathered beside Him at once. Thus I saw Pharaoh, who made a low bow to Him, as he said:

“Blessed be the God of Joseph, Who made Joseph Zaphenath-Paneah of the antiquity, and by Himself became the Zaphenath-Paneah of Eternity!”

Darius and Cyrus bowed in the very same way before Him, as they said:

“Blessed be the God of Daniel, Who glorified the Law, which does not alter! Blessed be the God of Daniel, Who shut the lion’s mouth and sent His Lion to the heart of the earth!”

The queen of Sheba bowed so, too, as she told Him:

“Blessed be the wise God of Solomon, Who urged me to come from the ends of the earth to hear the Wisdom of Solomon, as now before me stands more than Solomon!”

The king of Nineveh bowed in the same way, as he told Him:

“Be blessed, Heavenly King, for sending Your prophet to shout and cry through all of Nineveh!

Today my eyes see more than Jonah!

For this Jonah stood in the stomach of the fish, while You have come and have stood in the heart of the very earth! I know, My King, that the Heavenly God, Who sent You, will order You to leave heart of the earth and appear before Him in Glory!”

Having touched and hugged everyone, who bowed to Him, Lord looked at me with a look, too tender and warm. Then He told me:

“Here, Stefan! Now you really see the Glory of the Son of Man in the heart of the earth!

A Glory, of which none of My other servants has written! A Glory, which I reveal at the end of time, in order to find and prepare My last kings on earth. To you, who want to listen to My words and display My Word as Light to the world, I say today:

The King of Zion has taken His kings from the heart of the earth. At the very moment of My Resurrection all that was noble went up and there are no more kings in the heart of the earth. If, there are, they do not belong to Me, as I have neither guided them, nor inspired them.

Be kings, My people! Be noble! Have valour and courage, faithfulness and honour, dignity and courage! And most of all – pure conscience! Have the Law of the Lord in your hearts! Keep the royal command, “to love your neighbour as yourself”, as so you will never fall away!

As I have told all of you, but will once again repeat the words from My Gospel. And who has reason will surely understand what I mean:

“A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now One greater than Jonah is here. The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom, and now One greater than Solomon is here...” (Matthew 12:39-42)

Did not you see and comprehend that after the words about the sign of prophet Jonah, I was already talking about the men of Nineveh and the queen of the South? What else should the King do, but to rise with His kings in Glory?

Here, I lead My prophet to the brightest sign of the Son! To the Resurrection, through which Father glorified the Body of the Son and made Him come back from Death into Eternal Life!”

7. THE RESURRECTION OF LORD JESUS CHRIST

My brother! My faithful friend!

My heart is overflowing with the last splendid and wonderful vision to such an extent that I experienced falling in love with Jesus again. That falling in love, when you rediscover again everything that is most splendid, elevated and bright in the love of your heart. Then you understand that you have a new power. The power to love even more! The power – not to spare yourself to the death! The power – to endure any persecution, any suffering and any sacrifice for it!

This is how I love Jesus!

The Holy Spirit, having filled completely all of my thoughts, speaks to my heart, saying:

“Jesus loves you! He tasted Death for you, so that you all live with Him! He sees how many today have fallen under the power of the devilish Death and Hell! His call to all the captives is one:

“Lazarus, come out!”

Will you come out of Death and Hell, my brother?

Will you come out of the spirit of the world, who makes people dead for God? Will your heart see the tears, which Jesus sheds for you today, just as Lazarus shed them once? Here, I tell you that nobody of us would have understood the miracle of Christ’s Resurrection, if we ourselves had not been resurrected from the Death and Hell of the sinful life, in order to enter the Light and the Love of Jesus. For, many of the people are dead, while still living. Frozen by the chains of Death, by the power of passion and sin, by temptations and delusions that they have become like Lazarus, dead for four days.

But, here that there before the round stone stands Jesus! There stands the One, Who is the Resurrection and the Life! There stands the mighty King of Zion, Who scolded Satan and took the keys of Death and Hell from his hands!

Today He calls out to your heart:

“Come out, Lazarus!”

Exactly then happens a real miracle. As the bonds of Death are torn and the chains of Hell fall. The heavy stone of the Babylon spirit moves away. And you are ready to come out and praise the Saviour for the greatest miracle in your life.

The miracle of Resurrection!

It was for this most wonderful miracle that my heart stood speechless and enraptured before my Lord and God! Having caught the lightning of the Holy Spirit, raising through bright threads of Salvation countless number of people, He called out to Father, as He told Him:

“My Father and My God! Your dead Son descended to the heart of the earth! You, God, enlivened Him with Your Spirit and let Him preach to the spirits in the prison! Here, My Heavenly God! I bring a gift from the depths to You! For I took in My hands the keys of Death and Hell and made Your Heart rejoice in the celebration of Your Son, Who robbed the powers and commands of all of Your enemies in the darkness!

Appear Your Salvation, My Father! For Your sign has taken place and Your Word has confirmed!”

In reply to the words of Jesus the Heaven above the prison opened. Having stretched down His fiery hands, Father stretched them out to the tomb of Jesus. As He raised His Body and filled It out with Fire from His Fire and Light from His Light, He stretched it to the Spirit of His Son and to the shiny lightning of the Spirit, as He told Him:

“My beloved Son! Enter Your Glory, which You had even before the creation of the world! For Death and Hell have no powers over You! You crushed them and robbed them! Therefore Your Life is an Eternal Life and Your Kingdom – an Eternal Kingdom! In Your Name I will make all the families of all times bow!

Rise from the dead, Jesus! May Your blessed body become Living and Holy Hope for all the people on earth!”

After these words of the Father the miracle was already taking place before my eyes. As my Lord, most bright and pure, took the golden chain mail and the fiery mantle off, and as He gave them to Father, He said to Him:

“My Father! I was a King and a Master in the prison! But when I appear revived amidst My people, I want once again to be their servant! Here, take the royal clothes of My Spirit, before I unite with My Body...”

As He listened to the Son, Father took the chain His mail and mantle with His left hand. His Right hand brought the fiery and luminous closer to Jesus! So, the Spirit of Jesus united with the Body of Jesus! And my Lord, as He put His white linen cloth of a Servant, turned to me with a fiery look in His eyes. Then He spoke to me, as He said:

"I was dead, and behold I am alive for ever and ever!

And I hold the keys of death and Hell, through which I punish the unrighteous ones in the fiery hell! Go and tell all of God's children that I am the Resurrection and the Life! If anyone wants to rise from the dead together with Me, then such one must die together with Me! For of resurrection is capable only what dies!

To die for Me means to crucify yourselves together with Me! Dead for yourselves! Dead for what is yours! Dead for the world and everything in the world, but living for the Lord and for everything that is in the Lord!

I perturb the persecutors of My prophets, who came to hate and despise him, exactly when they had to become sacrificial rams! That is why I will be fearful and merciless to all, who want Death from the devil, instead of Death for God! Such ones will not know Me, as the Resurrection and the Life, for they have come to hate the Cross of the Lord and have become by themselves nails and spears in the Body of the Lord! To such ones will come a fate from the keys of Death and Hell, with which I will surely mark their hearts, unless they repent!

I throw a veil of imperishability to the generous and selfless, who gave their lives for the deed of My prophet and have become by themselves sacrificial rams before the Altar of My Father! Therefore, I will be a Fiery stronghold and a tender comfort to their hearts. For they have already known Me as Resurrection and Life, for they died among the living and lived among the dead. To such will surely come a fate from the keys of the Heavenly Kingdom, so that they have a great access before Me!

I, Lord and God Jesus Christ, Resurrection and Life, showed these visions to My servant and predicted these fates with My mouth!"